

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Statutum Hiberniæ de coheredibus made at Westminster 9 Febr' & 14 HEN. III. & A. D. 1229.

How Lands bolden by Knights Service, descending to Coparceners within Age, shall be divided.

HENRY, by the Grace of God, King of England, Lord of Ireland, Duke of Guyan and Normandy, Earl of Anjou, To his trusty and well beloved Gerard, son of Maurice Justicer of Ireland, Greeting. Whereas certain Knights of the parties of Ireland, lately coming to Us, have informed Us, that when any Land doth descend unto sisters within our Dominion of Ireland, our Justices Errant in those parties are in doubt whether the younger sisters ought to hold of the eldest sister, and do homage unto her for their portions, or of the chief Lord, and do homage unto him. And forasmuch as the said Knights have requested to be certified how it hath been used heretofore within our Realm of England in like case: (2) at their instance we do you to wit, that such a Law and Custom is in England in this case, That if any, holding of us in chief, happen to die, having daughters to his heirs, our ancestors and we, after the death of the Father, have always had and received homage of all such daughters, and every of them in this case do hold of us in chief: (3) And if they happened to be within age, we have always had the ward and marriage of every of them: (4) And if he be tenant unto another Lord, and not to us (the sisters being within age) the Lord shall have the ward and marriage of them all, and the eldest only shall do homage for herself and all her sisters. (5) And when the other sisters come to full age, they shall do their service to the Lords of the Fee by the hands of the eldest sister: yet shall not the eldest by this occasion exact of her younger sisters, homage, ward, or any other subjection, for they be all sisters, and in manner as one heir to one inheritance. (6) If the eldest should have homage of the other sisters, and demand wardship, then the inheritance should be divided, so that the eldest sister should be feignorefs and tenant of inheritance [simul & semel] that is to say, heir of her own part, and feignorefs to her sisters, which could not stand well together in this case, for the elder can demand no more than her sisters, but the chief meafe by reason of her ancientsy. (7) Moreover, if the elder sister should take homage of the younger, she should be as a feignorefs to them all, and should have the ward of them and their heirs; which should be no other but to cast the Lamb to the Wolf to be devoured. (8) And therefore we command you, that you cause the aforesaid Customs that be used within our Realm of England in this case, to be proclaimed throughout our Dominion of Ireland, and to be straightly kept and observed. In testimony whereof, &c. I witness myself at Westminster, the ix. day of February, in the xiv. year of our Reign.

Statutum de Hibernia is said not to be a Statute in the old Abridgement, Tit. Homage, but is inserted as one in the English Editions.

The Day of the Leap-Year, and the Day before, shall be bolden for one Day.

Bract. 359.

THE King unto his Justices of the Bench, Greeting. Know ye, that where within our Realm of England, it was doubted of the Year and Day that were wont to be assigned unto sick Persons being impleaded, when and from what Day in the Year going before unto another Day of the Year following, the Year and Day in a Leap-Year ought to be taken and reckoned how long it was:

II. We therefore, willing that a Conformity be observed in this behalf every where within our Realm, and to avoid all Danger from such as be in Plea, have provided, and by the Counsel of our faithful Subjects have ordained, That, to take away from henceforth all Doubt and Ambiguity that might arise hereupon, the Day increasing in the Leap-Year shall be accounted for one Year, so that because of that Day none shall be prejudiced that is impleaded, but it shall be taken and reckoned of the same month wherein it groweth; and that Day, and the Day next going before, shall be accounted for one Day. And therefore we do command you, that from henceforth you do cause this to be published afore you, and be observed. Witness my self at Westminster, &c.

The Award made between the King and his Commons at Kenelworth, the 51. year of King Henry the third.

The Award made between the King and his Commons at Kenelworth. 51 Hen. 3. 2 Ral. Abr. 173.

IN the Name of the holy & undivided Trinitie, Amen. To the honor & glory of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, & the Holy Ghost, of the glorious and most excellent Mother of God, and Virgin Mary, and of all Saints, by whose merites and meanes wee are governed in earth, to the honour and good prosperous and peaceable estate of the most Christian Prince, Lord Henry, the noble King of England, and of all the English Church, we William, Bishop of Oxon, W. of Bathe and Welles, H. Worcester and Menemen Bishoppes, Gilbert de Clare, Earle of Gloucester, Humfrey Earle of Hereford, Philip Basset, Iohn Bayliffe, Robert Walsop, Alein de la Such, Rager de Samery, and Warryn de Basyngburne, appointed to prouide for the good estate of the Land, and namely for certayne persons disherited, hauing thereunto full power of our sayd Lord the King, and the other Barons and Councellers, according to the forme written and confirmed in the Letters general and speciall of the said King, and the other aforementioned, willing to proceede according to the path of equitie by the assent of the Reuerend Father Othobons, Deacon, Cardinall of Saint Adrian, and Legate of the Apostolique See, and the Noble man H. of Almaine, hauing like power and authoritie, we haue thought it good to be provided in this wise, that there shall be made no disherison, but redemption, that is to wit:

First, concerning them that began the warre, and yet continue.

Item, they that were at Chester field against the King in battell.

Item, they that forcibly and maliciously withheld Northampton against the King.

Item, they that were taken at Kenelworth, which came from the sacking of Winchester, or that other where were against the King, whom he hath not pardoned.

Item, they that warred at Euesham against the King.

Item, they that freely, wilfully, and vncompelled, sent any ayde against the King or his sonne.

Item, the Baylifs and Officers of the Earle of Leicester, which robbed their neighbours, and procured manslaughter, house-burnings, and other euils to be done, shal pay as much as their lands be worth by the space of five yeeres. And that they paying their Ransomes, shal haue their lands againe, so that if their lands should be sold, none shall haue them; but hee that holdeth the same of the gift of the King, in case he will giue so much as a common Purchafor, and with those termes, that if the party so redeeming his land, doe satisfie for his whole land from the beginning, hee shall forthwith haue his whole land: and likewise hee that satisfieth for the halfe or the third part, shall forthwith haue the halfe, or the third part. But if at the last Terme appointed, the partie redeeming doe not satisfie, the halfe of the lands remaining, shall remaine to them, to whom they were given by the King's gift. Also the party redeeming shal be at libertie within that terme to sell all or part of his land, and in like manner to let it to farme. And if any haue Woods, and will sell them towards their Ransome, he that holdeth the land by the kings gift, shal haue a competent seruitt, that shall receiue the money. And the partie disinherited, which selleth the Wood, must haue one (in whom he trusteth) and these two Receiuers, in the presence of the whole Shire, shall pay the money receiued for the Wood, to them to whom redemption ought to be giuen.

The payment of this redemption must be done by three yeeres.

Knights and Esquires, which were robbers, and among the principall robbers in warres and rodes, if they haue no lands, but haue goods, shal pay for their ransome the halfe of their goods, and shall finde sufficient sureties to keepe the Peace of the king and of the Realme from henceforth.

They that haue nothing, shall come and sweare by the holy Gospels of God, finding sufficient suretie, that from thenceforth they shall keepe the Peace, and suffer satisfaction and pennance after the judgement of the Church, Except persons banished, to whom onely the king onely may remit.

The Lords of heires within age, shall pay ransome for them, and the heires, when they shall come to full age, shall pay ransome to the Lords at the same terms, wherewith other paid by three or two yeers. So that the Lords of such lands shall haue the ward of the heires with marriages without disparagement, untill their lawful age, and the heires shall pay ransome, as other haue payd, and at the same termes.

The custodies which are due to the king, shall remaine to them to whome they were giuen by the king, and when the heires shall come to lawful age, they shall ransome at the same termes as other did, and no Waste must be done by them that haue the custodie, and if there be, justice shall be done against them, according as is contained in Magna Charta.

If any before the battell of Lewis stood on the kings part, and after the battell be disherited, because he would not come to the kings sonne, to his succour: let the king say his pleasure touching such upon his fidelitie.

Woods may not be sold ne wasted by them that hold them now in any wise, but if it be for not keeping the last terme of payment, notwithstanding they to whom the lands were given by the king, shall haue necessaries for the keeping or reparation of the houses, and otherwise doing they shall be grieuously punished.

If there be any, of whom it is supposed, that he will make or procure warre, the Lord Legate and the king shall provide such surety as shall seeme expedient, by sending them out of the Realme for a time, or otherwise as they shall think conuenient, so neuertheless, if it fortune such a one to be let from his payment or ransome, hee shall not be disherited therefore.

If there be any not content with this ordinance, let him abide the judgement of the kings Court within the feast of Saint Hillary: Such as be out of the Realme upon lawful cause, shall haue their safe conduct according to the Law and Custome of the Realme for being beyond the sea, so that they keepe themselues in peace, for else they shall not bee in the forme of this Peace.

Because the king is bounden to many that holpe him, and faithfully stood by him, for whom hee hath provided no lands, and some haue more than they should haue, let the king provide, that he largely reward them of the ransomes that are to be taken, lest it turne to a matter of new warre.

Let the lord Legate, the king, and Henry of Almaine provide, that there be chosen twelue, which diligently and faithfully may execute these things, and that the king and his heires may cause them firmly to be kept and maintained. Let them also enquire and fulfill those things, that shall be ordained of the foresaid twelue, according to reasonable and true estimations, and after as the said twelue shall thinke good to be done.

Fermors that were against the king, shall leese their termes, sauing the right of their Lords, to whom they pay their yearly Rent, and they that shall haue the Fermes after the termes expired, shall render them to the true Lords.

Concerning Castles builded by the kings Charters, and by his consent, and yet disherited without his consent, wee award, that after

after the ranfome payd, within the fpace of three yeeres, the Lord of the land fhall pay within fix yeeres the cofts which were layd upon them afore this general proclamation by confent of the king, or by reasonable exchange of land.

Lay men that openly procured the bufineffe of the Earle of Leicefter, his complices drawing men by lies and falfe tales, and ftrring them to the part of the Earle and his adherents, and withdrawing them from the part of the King and his fonne, fhall be punished by as much as the two yeeres value of their land doth amount.

Such as were compelled, or driuen by feare vnto the battell, and neither fought, ne did hurt: Likewise impotent perfons, which either by force or feare fent their feruants againft the King and his fonne: And thofe which being constrained or led by feare were robbers, and did robberies with the principall robbers, and when they faw opportunitie withdrew, and returned to their houfes, and thofe alfo that wittingly bought others goods fhall reftore the value of the goods, which they robbed or bought in fuch manner, and fhall be amerced to the King for that they did againft Iuftice, and becaufe the king did forbid the fame, halfe a yeere now paffed.

They that by the commandment of the Earle of Leicefter, entered into Northampton, & neither fought ne did harme, but fled to the Church when they efpied the king comming, and that being found by lawfull perfons: Likewise they that held not of the fayd Earle and come at his commandment, fhall pay the halfe yeeres value of their land: But they that held of the Earles fee, fhall onely be amerced to the king.

Impotent men and other, which did no harme, fhall be reftored to their lands without delay, and recouer their damages in the kings Court. Let falfe accufers be punished againft the king in fuch wife as he beleue them not lightly thereafter. And fuch punifhment muft be done of them as belongeth to them, that wrongfully haue caufed the kings lieges to be difherited and vndone, without perill of life, maiming, and difherifon.

They that were accufed by malice fhall forthwith haue againe their lands, and recouer their damages in the kings Court, as is contained in the Article next afore.

Women fhall haue their heritages and dowers of the firft Lords. Touching their husbands, which were againft the king, they fhall haue as the king hath ordained, and be ranfomed.

The ranfome of them that were againft the king fhall ftand in force, but of thofe which in nothing were againft the king, no ranfome fhall ftand: But forthwith fhall haue their lands againe, and recouer damages, as afore, &c.

Touching perfons maliciously accufed, it hath bene already fpoken, and that the accufers fhould be punished, as afore is fayd, by fubmitting themfelues to the Award of the king and of other Lords, or elfe the thing by concord or peace made, fhall ftand in his force.

All persons receiued to the Peace by those that had commission thereunto shall remaine in such estate as when they were receiued.

All that be ransomed, shall not be bounded to answer for the harmes and trespasses done by them in the time of the commotion aforesayd, but hurts and trespasses shall be forgiuen of either party. Sauing neuerthelesse, the exaction to euery man that he shall not intermedle of the sayd commotion sauing that that pertaineth to the Church.

Because it seemed dangerous that castles should be in the power of them, which offended against the king, we Award and ordaine touching the castles of Herdley, Byham, and Chertsey, that a reasonable exchange shall be given for them.

Touching Simon de Mountford, Earle of Leicester, his Countesse and children we say nothing, for the King hath put their matter into the hands of the King of Fraunce.

Touching London we commend it, and exhort the King, that he by his counsell will prouide a reformation for the state of the cite, as concerning their lands, rents, houses and liberties, and that the same prouision may be made immediatly.

Concerning the Earle de Ferris, we Award that he be punished by as much as the value of his lands shall amount unto in. vii. yeeres.

All those of the castell shall be in the common forme of peace, except Henry de Hastings, and those that maimed the Kings messenger, which shall be imprisoned. vii. yeeres, or else put themselves in the Kings mercy.

Let all men from henceforth keepe the Peace firmly, and let none commit burning of houses, robberies, nor other outrages against the Peace, and whoso doeth, and be convict thereof shall haue iudgment according to the law of the land.

Moreover, all that haue to doe in this behalfe, shall sweare upon the holy Gospels of God, that none shall take reuengment, ne procure to be taken, nor consent or suffer that any reuengment be taken by occasion of the commotion aforesaid. And if any take reuengment, he shall be punished after the custome of the Kings court.

Let the Church be satisfied by them that haue hurt her in any point.

If there be any that will not obserue this Award, nor abide the iudgement of the King by his Peers: all that be such shall be of the number of the disinherited, and shall haue no law to recouer their lands. And if any holding the lands of any person disinherited, be found rebell to this Award: he shall not be admitted to challenge any right in the land or ransome given him by the King.

Moreover who so will not agree to this Award, let him be had as enemie of the king, and his sonnes, and of all the comminalties. And people and Clergy (as farforth as the lawes and commons doe permit) shall pursue him as enemie of the Peace of the Church and of the Realme.

Such as be imprisoned, and in ward, finding sufficient and reasonable surety, shall be deliuered by pledges, or by other assurance competent and reasonable, according to the prouision of the Lord Legate, and the king.

Moreover no man by occasion of the foresayd commotion, may hereafter disherit any person that by any law ought to succede him.

Yeuen and proclaimed in the Castle of Kenelworth, the day before the kalendes of Nouember, in the yeere of our Lord. M.CC.lxvi. the. li. yeere of the reigne of the Lord Henrie, the noble King of England of that name the third.

(4) Moreover, Distresses shall be reasonable, and not too great. (5) And they that take great and unreasonable Distresses, shall be grievously amerced for the Excess of such Distresses.

PROvisum est etiam, quod si terra, que tenetur in socagio, sit in custodia parentum heredum eo quod [ille dum] heres infra etatem extiterit, custodes illi [illius] vastum facere non possunt, vel vendicionem, vel aliquam destructionem de hereditate illa; sed salvo eam custodiant ad opus dicti heredis,

(9) And when they have thus inquired upon every thing, they shall cause all the Land, Corn, and Goods to be valued, in like manner as if they should be sold incontinently, and thereupon they shall be delivered to the whole Township, which shall be answerable before the Justices for all; (10) and likewise of his Freehold, how much it is worth yearly over and above the Services due to the Lords of the Fee; and the Land shall remain in the King's Hands, until the Lords of the Fee have made Fine for it. Claiming and using of Liberties, and Causes to seise them into the King's Hands. Complaint of Officers.

THE Year of our Lord M.CC.LXX.VIII. the Sixth ² Inf. 279. Year of the Reign of King EDWARD, at Gloucester, in the Month of August, the King himself providing for the Wealth of his Realm, and the more full Ministracion of Justice, as to the Office of a King belongeth (the more discreet Men of the Realm, as well of high as of low Degree, being called thither) (2) it is provided and ordained, That whereas the Realm of England in divers Cases, as well upon Liberties as otherwise, wherein the Law failed, to avoid the grievous Damages and innumerable Disherisons that the Default of the Law did bring in, had Need of divers Helps of new Laws, and certain new Provisions, these Provisions, Statutes, and Ordinances underwritten shall from henceforth be straitly and inviolably observed of all the Inhabitants of his Realm. (3) And whereas Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other of our Realm, that claim to have divers Liberties, which to examine and judge, the King hath prefixed a Day to such Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other; it is provided and likewise agreed, That the said Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other shall use such Manner of Liberties, after the Form of the Writ here following:

A Writ to the Sheriff to permit all Men to enjoy those Liberties which they had before.

[II. Rex vic' salutem. Cum nuper in parlamento nostro apud Westmonasterium, per nos & concilium nostrum provifum fit & proclamatum, quod prelati, comites, barones, & alii de regno nostro, qui diversas libertates per chartas progenitorum nostrorum regum Anglię habere clamant, ad quas examinandas & judicandas diem præfixerimus in eodem parlamento, libertatibus illis taliter uterentur, quod nihil sibi per usurpationem seu occupationem accrescerent, nec aliquid super nos occuparent. Teste, &c.]

III. In like Manner and in the same Form Writs shall be directed to Sheriffs and other Bailiffs for every Demandant, and the Form shall be changed after the Diversity of the Liberty which any Man claimeth to have, in this wise:

A Proclamation, that they which claim Liberties, shall shew to the Justices how they hold them.

[IV. Rex vic' salutem. Præcipimus tibi, quod per totam ballivam tuam videlicet, tam in civitatibus, quam in burgis, & aliis villis mercatoriis, & alibi, publice proclamari facias, quod omnes illi qui aliquas libertates per chartas progenitorum nostrorum regum Anglię vel alio modo, habere clamant, sint coram justiciariis nostris ad primam assisam, cum in partes illas venerint, ad ostendendum quomodo hujusmodi libertates habere clamant, & quo warranto, & tu ipse sis ibidem personaliter una cum ballivis & ministris ad certificandum ipsos justiciarios super his & aliis negotiis illud tangentibus.]

V. This Clause of Liberties, that beginneth in this wise, Præcipimus tibi, quod publice proclamari facias, &c. is put in the Writ of common Summons of the Justices in Eyre, and shall have a Premonition by the Space of forty Days, as the common Summons hath; (2) so that if any Party that claimeth to have a Liberty, be before the King, he shall not be in Default before any Justices in their Circuits; for the King of his special Grace hath granted, that he will save that Party harmless as concerning that Ordinance. (3) And if the same Party be impleaded upon such manner of Liberties before one or two of the foresaid Justices, the same Justices, before whom the Party is impleaded, shall save him harmless before the other Justices; and so shall the King also before him, when it shall appear by the Justices, that so it was in Plea before them as is aforesaid. (4) And if the foresaid Party be afore the King, so that he cannot be the same Day afore the said Justices in their Circuits, the King shall save that Party harmless before the foresaid Justices in their

Circuits

Circuits for the Day, whereas he was before the King. (5) And if he do not come in at the same Day, then those Liberties shall be taken into the King's Hands in Name of Distress, by the Sheriff of the Place, so that they shall not use them until they come to answer before the Justices; (6) and when they do come in by Distress, their Liberties shall be replevied (if they demand them) in the which Replevins they shall answer immediately after the Form of the Writ aforesaid; (7) and if percase they will challenge, and say that they are not bounden to answer thereunto without an original Writ, then if it may appear by any mean, that they have usurped or occupied any Liberties upon the King, or his Predecessors, of their own Head or Presumption, they shall be commanded to answer incontinent without Writ, and moreover they shall have such Judgement as the Court of our Lord the King will award; (8) and if they will say further, that their Ancestors died seised thereof, they shall be heard, and the Truth shall be inquired incontinent, and according to that Judgment shall be given; (9) and if it appear that their Ancestors died seised thereof, then the King shall award an Original out of the Chancery in this Form: [Rex vic' salutem. (3) The Remanents of the Ferns of the same Shires shall be written post terras datas in the annual Rolls, and the Sheriffs shall be charged therewith; (4) in which Remanents the Liveries and Alms assigned shall be allowed, and other Allowances (if Sheriffs have had any) of the Issues of their Bailiwicks by our Writs. (5) And because of the Suggestion of our Bailiffs, our Writs are made of divers Allowances, unto our grievous Damage, (6) we will and provide, That of such Manner Allowances so to be made, from henceforth View shall be made in our Exchequer; and the same View being faithfully made, the same Treasurer and Barons shall certify our Chancellor of the due Allowances so to be made, and that Writs of Allowances shall be made according to the same Certificate. (7) Moreover, there shall be written in the same annual Rolls the Ferns of the Sheriffs, the Profits of Counties, the Ferns of Serjeanties and Asserts, the Ferns of Cities, Boroughs, Towns, and other Ferns,

A Roll of desperate Debts.

II. Of dead Ferms, and Debts desperate, whereof there is no hope, one Roll shall be made, and shall be intituled Comitatus, and read every Year upon the Accompt of Sheriffs; and the Debts whereof the Sheriffs are answerable shall be written in the annual Roll, and there shall be acquitted.

Et Vicecomes ad Comitatum suum tenendum sic procedat.

In primis audiat & recipiat coram eo & coronatoribus & feodatoribus Com. presentationes feloniarum & casuum qui contigerint inter duos Comitatus de morte hominis hoc modo; quod quatuor Villate propinquiores loco ubi casus homicidii vel infortunii contigerit, veniant ad proximum Comitatum una cum Inventore & Walscheria, id est, parentela hominis interfecti, & ibi presentent Factum felonie, casum infortunii, & modum utriusque, ita pronuntiando, quod tali die & tali loco contigit, quod talis notus aut ignotus inventus fuit occisus per feloniam, vel submersus, vel alio modo mortuus per infortunium, & talis cum invenit qui prefens est, &c. Eodem modo procedatur in appello de plaga, mahemio, rapta; incendio, & roberia contra appellatos, si non comparuerint, Et si comparuerint, & plegios invenerint sufficientes, sex ad minus vel plures, standi recto in adventu Justiciarii, statim replegientur.

Et sciendum [est, Tot.] quod contra appellatos de vi, precepto, missione, vel receptamento, non est procedendum ad utlagariam quousque de facto aliquis convincatur.

Vicecomes faciet Turnum suum in singulis Commotis suis in anno in aliquo certo loco ad hoc assignando, scilicet, semel post Festum Sancti Michaelis, & semel post Pascha, ad quem Turnum omnes libere tenentes, & alii terram tenentes & in Commoto illo residentes, tempore summonitionis Turni tenendi, exceptis religiosis, clericis, & feminis, ibidem venire debent. Et Vicecomes per Sacramentum duodecim libere tenentium de discretioribus & legalioribus, vel plurium, pro discretionem Vicecomitis, diligenter inquireat de capitulis coronam Domini Regis tangentibus subscriptis. De Seductoribus Domini Regis & Regni, Domine Regine, & Liberatorum suorum, & eorum consentaneis. De redobatoribus pannorum furatorum, eos in novam formam redigentibus, & veterem mutantibus, ut de mantello tunicam vel supertunicam facientibus, & similia. De utlagatis, & illis qui regnum abjuraverunt reversis. De hiis qui contra admmum & iter Justiciarii se subtraxerunt, & post iter Justiciarii redierunt. De raptoribus virginum sanctimonialium & matronarum honeste viventium. De thesauro invento. De curia aquo diverso. De via obstructa, vel restricta, vel arcata. De muris, domibus, portis, fossatis, & marleris levatis & factis juxta iter publicum, ad nocumentum ipsius itineris, & in periculum transcurrentium, & de predicta levantibus & facientibus. De falsariis monete, & sigilli Domini Regis. De malefactoribus in parcis & vivariis. De frangentibus prisonam Domini Regis. De capientibus columbas volantes de columbariis. De facientibus Puntbreche, hoc est [de Tot. & al.] fractoribus parcorum, in quibus animalia inparcantur. De Forstallis, hoc est, de Rescussu averiorum. De Hamefokne, hoc est, de invasione domus. De Thefbote, hoc est, de emenda furti capta sine consideratione curie Domini Regis. De imprisonantibus liberos quoscunque. De Usurariis. De amoventibus vel corrumpentibus divisas. De Assisa panis & cervisie non observata, & [de, Tot.] eam infringentibus. De hutefio levato. De tondentibus multones noctanter in ovilibus, & eos excoriantibus, vel etiam alia animalia. De capientibus & colligentibus noctanter blada in autumnno, & ea asportantibus; & de omnibus aliis hujusmodi malefactoribus. Inquiratur etiam de juribus Domino Regi subtractis, ut de custodiis, wardis, maritagiiis, releviis, feodis, advocacionibus ecclesiarum, sique fuerint, sectis Comitatum & Commotorum, quis ea subtraxerit, & a quo tempore. Et de hiis qui sibi appropriaverint jura regalia sine warranto, ut furcas, emendas assise panis & cervisie fracte, placitum de namio vetito, & alia hujusmodi jura que specialiter & per prerogativam pertinent ad curiam Domini Regis.

Viccomes autem in visu & in turno suo faciendo statim in principio convenire faciat coram se omnes totius Commoti, & eos jurare faciat, quod verum presentabunt duodecim juratoribus vel pluribus per Vicecomitem electis, & nullum verum celabunt, vel aliquid falsum dicent de hiis de quibus ab eis inquiretur ex parte Domini Regis, & facto Sacramento exponantur eis capitula suprascripta, & injungatur eis, quod de singulis veritatem diligenter inquirent; & si quos invenerint, qui ob eorum maleficium vitam amittere debeant vel membra, eorum nomina in secretis Vicecomiti intiment, ne forte hujusmodi indictati, si presentes essent in Turno, aufugerint, si in publico indictarentur. De ceteris autem capitulis bene poterunt palam & publice respondere, & veredictum suum reddere, & tunc dicatur eis quod singuli seorsum vadant, & diligenter tractent, & inquirent de hiis que eis sunt injuncta; & cum bene certiorari fuerint, redeant, & veredictum suum reddant & presentent.

Viccomes vero in veredictis & recognitionibus admittendis non querat occasiones versus presentantes, nec capiat ab eis fines per sic quod non occasionentur. Recepto autem veredicto seu presentatione presentantium, Viccomes statim, vel quam cito poterit, indictatos de maleficiis, quorum pena est mors vel amissio membrorum, capiat, & in prisona detineat, vel per plegios sufficientes dimittat. Et de ceteris capitulis, secundum quod inquisierit, statim fiat correctio & debita executio in omnibus & singulis supradictis.

Ballivi autem Commotorum de cetero teneant Commotes suos, & justiciam faciant & exerceant inter litigantes.

De officio Coronatoris, videlicet, de Placitis Corone [in partibus Tot.] Wallie.

Provisum est, quod in quolibet Commoto Wallie sit unus Coronator ad minus, qui per breve Domini Regis in forma inter cetera Brevia regia in Rotulo sequenti contenta, in pleno Com. eligatur, & coram Vicecomite ibidem faciat Sacramentum, quod erit fidelis Domino Regi, & quod fideliter faciat & exequetur omnia que ad officium Coronatoris pertinent. Eritque Officium ejus, quod statim postquam ab aliquo requisitus fuerit veniendi ad videndum mortuum interfectum per feloniam vel submersum, aut quocunque alio modo mortuum per infortunium, & etiam ad videndum hominem enormiter vulneratum, de cujus vita desperatur; quod statim mandabit Vicecomiti vel Ballivo Commoti, quod venire faciat coram eo certis die & loco, omnes duodecima annorum & ultra, de villa illa in qua casus contigerit, & de quatuor villatis propinquis, & quod per eorum Sacramentum fideliter, caute, & secrete, ac diligenter inquiret de feloniam, de felonibus, & eorum catallis, similiter de facto, & de modo facti, videlicet, quis fuerit culpabilis de facto, quis de vi, & cuiusmodi vi, quis de precepto seu missione, quis etiam de receptamento post factum, & de catallis eorundem hominum qui per inquisitionem inde culpabiles inventi fuerint. Inquirat etiam quis interfectum primo invenerit, & nomen ejus inrotuletur, & attacktetur per plegios, quorum nomina inrotulentur veniendi ad proximum Commotum, & etiam coram Justiciario in adventu suo. Et quod facta inquisitione illa, eam statim distincte & aperte inrotulari faciat una cum nominibus eorundem qui inventi fuerint culpabiles, & eorum catallis, & quod nomina eorundem scripta Vicecomiti, si presens fuerit, vel Ballivo Commoti secrete liberabit, precipiendo ex parte Domini Regis, quod corpora eorum statim capiuntur, & in prisona Domini Regis salvo custodiantur, donec iude fecerint rectum in curia Domini Regis; & quod catalla eorundem fideliter appreciari faciat, & tam catalla particulariter quam precium eorundem in Rotulo suo ponet, & eadem catalla per visum Vicecomitis vel Ballivi & aliorum fidelium Domini Regis, qui interfuerint singulis villatis, in quibus catalla predicta inventa fuerint, integre liberari faciet, ut in adventu Justiciarii Domino Regi fideliter inde respondeant.

Coronator vero, cum fecerit inquisitionem super mortuum, interroget Walscheriam, scilicet, parentelam interfecti; & si quis ex parte patris, & alius ex parte matris apparuerint, dicendo quod sunt de parentela sua, & hoc per fideles Regis testificatum fuerit, nomina eorum in Rotulo suo statim inrotulari faciat: Si autem nullus de parentela compareat, inrotulet similiter quod nullus comparet, ut Justiciarius in adventu suo evidenti facere possit quid in hac parte fuerit faciendum.

Coronator etiam diligenter inquirat casum infortunii & modum, & secundum quod invenerit per inquisitionem, distincte inrotulari faciat. Inquirat etiam de inventore, & nomen ejus inrotulari faciat, ut supra.

Preterea cum latro, vel homicida, seu alius malefactor, fugerit ad Ecclesiam, Coronator quam cito sibi confiterit, mandet Ballivo Domini Regis illius Commoti, quod certo die venire faciat coram eo probos & legales homines de visneto, & in presentia eorum facta recognitione Felonie, fieri faciet Abjurationem hoc modo; quod se lo ducatur usque ad portam Ecclesie, & assignetur ei portus per Coronatorem, & extunc abjuret regnum, & secundum quod assignabitur ei portus propinquus vel remotus, prefigatur ei terminus exeundi regnum predictum, ita quod in eundo versus portum illum deferens quandam crucem in manu sua, non declinet a via regali aliquo modo, scilicet a dextris nec a sinistris, set semper eam teneat quousque regnum exierit.

matris, fratris, vel sororis, avunculi, vel amite, & alius vel alii ex ipsis coheredibus petunt de morte avi sui vel avie sue, vel consanguinei sui vel consanguinee sue, fiat eis Breve mortis An-ram mortis Antecessoris juxta articulum inde usitatum attrahit ad se naturam aliorum articulorum tangentium coheredes in gradibus remotioribus.

Placitorum quedam habent terminari per Assisam, quedam per Juratas.

Per Assisam habent terminari, cum quis seisitus de libero tenemento postea per vim disseisitus petit seisinam sibi restitui. Et in hoc casu provisum est Breve de nova disseisina in forma inter alia Brevia originalia Cancellarie superscripta. Similiter de communia pasture, cum quis disseisitus de communia pasture sua pertinente ad liberum tenementum suum petit seisinam sibi restitui, & in hoc casu providetur idem Breve de nova disseisina, per mutationes quorundam verborum in forma inter alia Brevia originalia Cancellarie superscripta, in quibus sic est procedendum.

Primo receptis a querente duobus Plegiis de proseguendo, Vicecomes faciat eligere duodecim liberos & legales homines, &c. de visneto ubi tenementum vel pastura existit, & faciat eos videre tenementum, & similiter pasturam, & attachiet disseisitores, prout continetur in Brevi. Postea, cum partes et Assisa venerint coram Iusticiario, queratur a querente, de quo libero tenemento, vel de qua communia pasture queritur se disseisiri, & secundum ejus querimoniam & reponsonem partis adverse procedatur ad captionem Assise, nisi disseisitor aliquid sciat dicere quare Assisa debeat remanere. Et si Assisa faciat pro querente, recuperet querens Seisinam suam simul cum dampnis taxatis per Assisam versus disseisitorem, & disseisitor remaneat in misericordia Domini Regis, vel committatur gaole redimendus, si disseisina facta fuerit enormiter & vi armata.

Sunt quedam alia Brevia que per Assisam habent terminari, videlicet, de Stago levato, prostrato, exaltato; de Fossato le-

vato, vel prostrato; Sepe levata vel prostrata; de Via ob-structa vel arctata; de Cursu aque diverso: Et secundum diversitatem casuum diversificetur Breve originale, que quidem Brevia cum Brevibus de nova disseisina superius continentur; & eodem modo sicut supradictum est in Brevi de libero Tenemento & de Communia pasture est procedendum in eisdem.

In supradictis Brevibus Assise nove disseisine nullum jacet Es-sonium seu Dilatio, set prima die procedatur ad justitiam faciendam.

Aliud est Breve Assisarum quando aliquis petit Seisinam tenementi, unde Antecessor suus obiit seistus, videlicet, Pater, Frater, Avunculus aut Avus; in quo casu provisum est Breve mor-tis Antecessoris in forma inter cetera Brevia in Rotulo predicto contenta.

Contingit etiam aliquando quod petitur Seisina Antecessoris, in casu quando Antecessor non obiit seistus, set fuit seistus die quo habitum Religionis suscepit, vel iter peregrinationis arripuit, in quo itinere obiit: Et tunc loco illius clause, die quo obiit, ponatur, die quo habitum Religionis suscepit, vel iter peregrina-tionis, &c. in quo itinere, &c. Et si iter, &c. In isto Brevi Antecessoris sic est procedendum.

Primo inventis Plegis de prosequendo, & electa Assisa, & visu facto a Juratoribus, summonetur tenens per duos bonos & legales Summonitores quod sit coram Justiciario ad certum diem, &c. & contineat summonitio quindecim dies ad minus, ad quem diem si venerit, procedat Justiciarius in Officio suo exequendo.
Et si ad diem illum non venerit, puniatur pro defaulta sua secundum quod continetur in Lege Wallensica, scilicet, per tres vaccas vel per precium earundem, & resummonetur per alios duos Summonitores, summonitione similiter continente spatium quindecim dierum, sicut predictum est, ad quem diem, five venerit five non, procedat Justiciarius ad Officium suum faciendum, nisi fecerit se essonari de ultra mare, & tunc dabitur ei spacium quadraginta dierum ut possit habere Ed. & Flod. Set caveat sibi qui se sic essoniaverit, quod si existens intra quatuor maria de ultra mare falso se essoniaverit, & super hoc convincatur per bonam probationem vel per bonam Inquisitionem, puniatur tanquam pro defaulta, primo per misericordiam quod continetur in Lege Wallensica, & precludatur ei Via aliquid dicen-di contra Assisam, nisi vocare possit ad Warrantum.

Et sciendum quod nec in Brevi mortis Antecessoris, nec in alio Brevi de placito terre, jacet aliquod essonium, nisi tantum essonium de ultra mare, & hoc antequam tenens vel deforcens apparet in Curia; & essonium de servitio Domini Regis, quod jacet in omni loco placiti, cum Rex illud warrantizare voluerit.
Set caveat sibi quod falso non faciat se essonari de servitio Domini Regis, quia si deficiat de Warranto Regis, puniatur pro defaulta per misericordiam Domino Regi dandam secundum Le-gem Wallensicam, & versus partem adversam de expensis sibi refundendis de illa jorjeta secundum discretionem Justiciarii.

In

In istis Brevibus mortis Antecessor, sic est procedendum.

Lecto primo Brevi in quo continetur petitio Petentis, queratur a Deforciente, si quid sciat dicere quare Assisa debeat remanere; quod si nesciat, capiat Justiciarius Assisam per Juratores qui melius sciant veritatem secundum formam Brevis. Et si Assisa transeat pro Petente, adjudicetur Petenti seifina cum dampnis taxatis per Juratores, & Deforcians remaneat in misericordia Domini Regis.

Multa quidem potest Deforcians dicere contra Assisam; potest enim vocare ad Warrantum, & tunc expectandus est adventus Warranti, quem Justiciarius faciat venire, primo per unam Summonitionem, & si necesse sit per Resummonitionem, sicut dictum est de principali Deforciente, & pro defaulta puniatur sicut predictum est. Post Resummonitionem si nondum venerit, nec se effoniaverit, procedat Assisa versus eum per defaultam. Et si Assisa transeat pro Petente, adjudicetur Petenti Seifina rei petite, & Deforcians habeat de terra Warranti ad valentiam. Si vero Warrantus venerit, & petat sibi ostendi per quod debeat warrantizare, oportet quod Vocator ostendat cartam que faciat mentionem de Warrantia, vel de dono facto a Warranto vel Antecessore suo cujus heres ipse est, in quo fiat mentio quod de Feoffatore & ejus heredibus tenere debeat; vel quod ostendat quod Warrantus sit seifinus de homagio suo pro tenemento petito, quod habet inquiri si deditur, per eos in quorum presentia dicit se fecisse homagium simul cum aliis liberis & legalibus hominibus juratis; vel quod teneat tenementum illud in excambium pro alio tenemento. Si per ista poterit Deforcians ducere Warrantum suum ad warrantizandum, remanebit in misericordia Regis quia dedixit warrantizare, & nichilominus considerabitur quod warrantizet & respondeat ad Assisam si voluerit.

Multa alia potest Deforcians dicere contra Assisam, videlicet quod Antecessor de cujus morte, &c. commisit feloniam pro qua fuit suspensus, utlagatus, vel tanquam publicus latro fugiens & juri non parens decapitatus, vel si confitens feloniam coram Coronatore Walliam abjuravit.

Potest etiam Deforcians objicere Petenti Bastardiam, & tunc mandabitur Episcopo loci, quod rei veritatem super hoc inquirat, & certificet inde capitalem Justiciarium Wallie; & secundum quod Episcopus certificaverit, procedetur ad iudicium sine captione Assise. Et si Episcopus mandet quod Bastardus est, precludatur ei via petendi: Et si mandet quod legitimus est, Justiciarius faciet venire Deforcientem per summonitionem, & si necesse sit, per Resummonitionem, reservata Regi misericordia pro defaulta ut sepe dictum est. Post Resummonitionem, si venerit siue non, recuperabit Petens demandam suam per testimonium Episcopi, cujus testimonio non creditur in contrarium, & remanebit in misericordia Regis.

Multa alia potest dicere deforcians que difficile esset enumerare, sicut, Antecessor de cujus morte Assisa arrainiata est fuit villanus, & terram tenuit in villenagio, vel quod tenuit ad voluntatem, luntatem, vel ad terminum vite, vel annorum ; in quibus casibus Affisa mortis Antecessoris non jacet.

Non debent autem supradicte Affise nove disseifine & mortis Antecessoris capi, nisi in propriis Com. ne patria laboribus & expensis fatigetur, set per Justiciarium capiantur Affise bis, ter, vel quater in anno.

Dictum est in parte de Brevibus Affisarum, & de processu eorundem ; modo dicendum est de Placitis que terminari habent per Inquisitiones seu per Juratas ; quorum quedam sunt de rebus immobilibus, sicut de Tenementis ; sive de mobilibus, sicut de debitis & catallis ; quedam de utrisque ; quedam de Transgressionibus. Set primo de Tenementis & Immobilibus aliquid est dicendum, de quibus provisum est Breve, cujus forma inter cetera Brevia partium illarum continetur.

Primo inventis Plegiis de prosequendo, Vicecomes faciet summoneri per bonos Summonitores Tenentem quod sit ad certum diem, ad quem si non venerit, fiat alia summonitio ad alium diem : Et si ad secundum diem non venerit, summonetur quod sit ad tertium diem, ad quem si non venerit, nec se effonari fecerit, adjudicabitur petenti seifina per defaultam, & Deforciens remanebit in misericordia Regis, reservata nichilominus misericordia Regi pro qualibet defaulta, ut predictum est.

Cum vero Deforciens comparuerit, quia per verba Brevis non potest sciri petitio Petentis, eo quod multe & quasi infinite sunt rationes petendi, necesse habet illè qui petit, quod narret versus Deforcientem, & exprimat rationem petitionis sue, & hoc per verba veritatem continentia, sine calumpnia verborum, non observata illa dura consuetudine, Qui cadit a syllaba, cadit a tota causa.

De rationibus petendi quales sint & esse debeant, expedit quod aliquid sub brevitate dicatur.

Multotiens habet Petens jus per hoc, quod Antecessor suus tenuit terram petitam, & fuit inde seifitus ut de jure & de feodo, & tunc necesse habet Petens narrare descensum parentale descendendo ad ipsum. Contingit etiam quod aliquis dimittit terram [suam Tot. & al.] ad terminum vite vel annorum, post quem terminum ad ipsum vel ad heredes suos terra debet reverti ; vel etiam debet ad ipsum reverti post mortem mulieris tenentis in dote, vel tanquam escheata post mortem tenentis sui Bastardi, qui alium non potest habere heredem nisi de corpore suo legitime procreatum ; vel post mortem tenentis sui Felonis : In quatuor casibus predictis, vel post mortem alicujus, debet terra remanere alii per formam donationis. In hiis casibus & similibus exprimat Petens petitionem suam secundum casum suum, & in casibus illis & consimilibus quibus utendum est Brevi predicto, illo & non alio utatur, & audita ratione Petentis, habeat Tenens visum terre, si petat, & detur dies intra quem fiat visus. Et ad diem datum post visum respondeat Deforciens, qui vocare potest ad Warrantum per auxilium Curie, sicut dictum est in Brevi mortis Antecessoris. Et Justiciarius faciat venire Warrantum tantum sicut venire fecit principalem per unam Summonitionem, & si necesse sit, per secundam & tertiam, ad quem si non venerit, puniatur tamen pro qualibet defaulta, ut predictum est, & adjudicabitur Potenti seifina rei petite per defaultam Warranti, & Deforcienis habens de terra Warranti ad valentiam, & Warrantus sit in misericordia. Si Warrantus venerit, & gratis warrantizaverit, recipietur ad responfionem & placiti defenfionem sine visu terre habendo. Si autem warrantizare dediderit, deducatur placitum de Warrantia inter eos secundum quod dictum est supra in Brevi [moris Tot. & al.] Antecessoris. Si autem Deforcienis excipiat contra potentem, quod Antecessor suus cujus seifinam petit, vel aliquis in descendendo, fuerit Bastardus, ita quod ab ipso vel per modum ipsius nichil potest ei descendere, audiatur; vel ostendat cartam Antecessoris sui de Feoffamento, vel alicujus in descendendo de quieta clamantia; & per unius partis affirmationem & alterius negationem descendant partes ad legalem Inquisitionem, & per veredictum Inquisitionis terminetur placitum; quia placita de terris in partibus istis non habent terminari per Duellum, neque per magnam Assisam. Eodem modo, si excipiat quod Antecessor vel aliquis in descendendo commisit Feloniam, per quod sibi non competit actio; in quo casu si ille cui hoc opponitur neget, potius habet negotium terminari per Recordum Justiciarii, vel inquisitionem patrie de suspensione, & etiam per Recordum Coronatorum de utlagaria & abjuracione. Similiter in petitione Tenementi quod debet reverti post terminum pretentum, vel per modum donationis, per affirmationem unius partis & per negationem alterius defoendatur ad Inquisitionem patrie, & per veredictum ejus judicetur.

De alio Articulo, scilicet, de mobilibus, debitis sive catallis, est dicendum, super quo provisum est Brevi de debito in forma prescripta.

In hoc Brevi sic est procedendum.

Primo inventis plegiis de prosequendo, summonetur debitor sive reus quod sit coram Justiciario ad certum diem, ad quem si non venerit, iterum summonetur, & si ad secundum diem non venerit, nec se essonxerit, adjudicetur Potenti debitum per defaultam, simul cum dampnis per discretionem Justiciarii, vel per Inquisitionem patrie, pro voluntate Justiciarii, & debitor remaneat in misericordia Regis, reservata Regi semper misericordia pro qualibet defaulta. Si vero Debitor venerit, necesse habet Actor exprimere petitionem, & rationem sue petitionis, videlicet, quod tenetur ei in centum marcis, quas sibi accommodavit, cujus solationis dies preterit, vel pro terra, vel pro equo, vel pro aliis rebus seu catallis quibuscumque sibi venditis, vel pro arreragiis redditus non provenienti de tenementis, vel de aliis contractibus, super quibus necesse habet producere factam vel cartam obligationis, vel talliam ostendere. Audita & intellecta petitione, & etiam ratione Potentis, respondeat Debitor, qui si debitum recognoscat, adjudicetur & levetur de terris & catallis, &c. Si neget debitum, & proferatur contra eum obligatio sua, oportet ret scriptum verificari per testes nominatos in obligatione; si sint superstites, simul cum patria. Et si non sint testes nominati, vel si fuerint mortui, verificetur soluzmodo per patriam, & secundum veredictum patrie procedatur ad iudicium. Si vero querens non habeat obligationem, set tantummodo producat factam vel fallum, poterit pars adversa defendere [al. ostendere, Tot. & al.] se ei in nullo teneri, & hoc defendere per legem, scilicet per propriam Sueramentum cum undecim secum iurantibus, vel per patriam, prout eligere voluerit.

Contingit aliquando quod debitor confitetur quod aliquando debuit ei debitum, & allegat solutionem; tunc oportet ostendere acquietantiam de solutione, vel poterit Petens defendere per legem se nichil recepisse, vel etiam per patriam, &c.

Istud Breve de debito non concedatur de minori summa quam quadraginta solidis, quia de minori debito placitant in Comitatu sine Brevis & per Breve.

De tertio articulo in quo provium est Breve de conventione, per quod petuntur aliquando mobilia, aliquando immobilis, per vim conventionis inite inter partes, que legi derogat, in forma in loco prenotato conscripta.

Processus istius Brevis talis est.

Inventus primo Plegius de proseguendo, summonebitur Reus semel, & si necesse sit secundo; & si ad secundam summonitionem non venerit, nec se efforaverit, audiatur petitio & ratio Petentis, & capiatur res petita, si sit tenementum, in manum Regis; & si fuerit cattallum, illud vel ejus valor capiatur in manum Regis, & detur alius dies; & si infra quindocim dies repleriverit rem sic in manum Regis captam, & ad diem sibi datam venerit, admittatur ad responsionem & defensionem: Sin autem, adjudicetur Petenti sua petitio per defaultam, simul cum dampnis taxatis, sicut supra dicitur in Brevis de debito, & remaneat in misericordia Regis, salva semper Regi misericordia pro defaulta, ut predicatur. Audita querimonia Querentis, & ratione sue petitionis, respondeat Defendens, & per affirmationem unius partis & negationem alterius procedi poterit ad Inquisitionem, & per Inquisitionem patrie poterit negotium terminari.

Et sciendum est, quod per Breve de conventione aliquando petitur liberum tenementum, ut in casu quando aliquis dimittit terram alteri reddendo inde quandam certam firmam, apposta conditione in Scripto conventionis, quod nisi ei fuerit satisfactum de firma, liceat ei terram quam dimisit ingredi & tenere. Si ille cui terra fuerit dimissa, non satisfecerit de firma; & ille qui dimisit, non habeat potestatem secundum tenorem scripti sui ingrediendi terram quam dimisit propter potentiam sui Adversarii; in hoc casu per Breve de conventione recuperare debet tenementum simul cum dampnis.

Aliquando cum conveniat inter aliquos quod unus feoffabit alium de aliquo tenemento, & ad certam diem ei seisinam faciat, si postmodum transfulerit illud tenementum in tertiam personam ipsam feoffando, cum non poterit illud feoffamentum per priorem contractum ad effectum non productum inferri, non poterit terit in isto casu cui fit injuria, per Breve de conventionibus subveniri, nisi in hoc tantum ut satisfiat ei de dampnis in pecunia. Et sic in casu competit actio petendi tenementum per Breve de conventionibus, & in casu pecuniam seu dampna sine tenemento.

Et quia infiniti sunt contractus conventionum, difficile esset facere mentionem de quolibet in speciali, set secundam rationem cujuslibet conventionis per affirmationem unius partis & negationem alterius, aut pervenietur ad Inquisitionem faciendam super facto negotii, aut pervenietur ad cognitionem Scriptorum in judicio prolatorum, & secundum illam cognitionem erit judicandum; aut negabuntur Scripta & tunc pervenietur ad inquirendum de confessione Scriptorum per testes in Scriptis nominatos, si fuerint simul cum patria; quod si testes non fuerint nominati, vel etiam mortui, tunc solummodo per patriam.

De quarto Articulo, videlicet, de Transgressionibus personarum, de quibus provisum est quod omnes Transgressiones, unde dampna non excedunt quadraginta solidos, placitentur coram Vicecomite in Comitatu sine Brevi per Vadios & Plegios: Transgressiones que excedunt summam quadraginta solidorum, placitentur coram Justiciario Wallie sub hac forma.

Quod antequam Justiciarius eum audiat, juret Querens quod actio sua excedat summam [al. valorem, Tot & al.] quadraginta solidorum, & hoc facto, & Plegiis inventis de proseguendo, precipiat Justiciarius Vicecomiti vel Ballivo loci, quod in brevi termino faciat venire coram eo eum de quo sit querimonia, & audita querimonia Actoris respondeat Reus; & cum vix in placito transgressionis evadere poterit Reus quin defendat se per patriam, de consensu partium inquirat veritatem Justiciarius per bonam patriam, & inquisita veritate, si invenerit Reum culpabilem, castiget eum per Prisonam vel per Redemptionem, vel per Misericordiam, & per Dampna Leso restituenda secundum qualitatem & quantitatem delicti, ita quod castigatio illa sit aliis in exemplum, & timorem prebeat delinquendi. Et quia dictum est supra de consensu partium, contingere poterit quod Reus refutabit Inquisitionem patrie; in quo casu si Actor transgressionem sibi factam offerat verificare per patriam, & Reus patriam refutaverit, habeatur pro convicto, & puniatur sicut si convictus esset per patriam.

Et quia Mulieres non extiterant dotate hactenus in Wallia, Rex concedit quod dotentur. Duplex est dos mulieris: Una est, assignatio tertie partis totius terre que fuit viri sui in vita sua super quo fiat Breve de rationabili dote alibi in suo loco cum ceteris Brevibus Wall. expressum.

Processus istius Brevis est talis.

Inventis Plegiis de proseguendo, summonetur Deforciens quod sit ad certum diem, ad quem si non venerit, iterum summonetur, ad quem diem si non venerit, adjudicetur mulieri dos sua, scilicet tertia pars, &c. simul cum dampnis, &c. Si vero Defendens venerit, admittatur ad responsonem sine visa terre terre habendo, & formata petitione mulieris, dicatur Tenenti quod respondeat si sciat aliquid dicere quare ipsa dotem habere non debeat; qui si nichil sciat dicere, recuperet mulier ut supra.

Si forte objiciat quod non debeat dotem habere, eo quod nunquam fuit tali quam ipsa vocat virum legitimo matrimonio copulata; tunc mandabitur Episcopo, quod super hoc inquirat veritatem, & inquisita veritate, certificet Justiciario Wallie, & secundum certificationem Episcopi procedatur ad iudicium in hac forma.

Si Episcopus certificet quod non fuit uxor legitima, preclusa erit ei via habendi dotem: Si certificet quod fuit uxor legitima, summonetur Tenens quod sit ad certum diem auditurus iudicium suum, ad quem diem si non venerit, iterum summonetur quod sit ad alium diem, ad quem diem si venerit si non; nullo essonio allocato; recuperabit Mulier dotem suam & dampna, & Tenens in misericordia, salva Regi semper misericordia pro defactis.

Si vero objiciat quod non debeat dotem habere, eo quod vir suus die quo eam desponsavit, nec unquam postea tenuit tenementum unde petit dotem in feodo, ita ut eam inde dotare potuit, hujus rei veritas per patriam solummodo est inquirenda, & per veredictam patrie ad iudicium erit procedendum.

Si objiciatur ei quod non debet dotem habere eo quod vis suus commisit feloniam, tunc si constiterit de feloniam dotem non recuperabit.

Similiter si objiciatur ei quod vir suus amisit terram de qua petit dotem per iudicium, ut illam in quam jus non habuit; hoc servitio per recordum Justiciariorum si dedicatur coram quibus terra illa fuit amissa, vel per patriam si in Comitatu vel minori Curia fuit amissa, preclusa erit sibi via de dote habenda.

Alia dos est quando filius dotat uxorem suam de voluntate patris sui, forma cujus Brevis inter cetera invenietur, cujus processus talis est.

Summoneatur Deforcians sicut in alio Brevis de dote, & eodem modo puniatur contumacia sicut in alio Brevis de dote. Si vero ad diem sibi datum venerit, tunc formata petitione Mulieris, respondeat, & si dedicatur dotatio facta in dicta forma, & consensus dotationis, & convinci poterit per patriam quod vir dotavit eam ad hostium Ecclesie de tenemento patris sui, & quod pater personaliter vel per specialem nuncium ad hoc missum consentit illi dotationi, recuperabit Mulier dotem & dampna.

Sciendum est etiam quod in utroque Brevis potest Tenens vocare ad warrantum per auxilium Curie, & procedetur in placito warrantie sicut predictum est.

Set est differentia in casu isto de Dote & in casu superius per Preceptum ubi terminatur modus procedendi in warrantia, quia ibi in illo casu Petens semper recuperat rem petitam, & Tenens de terra warranti ad valenciam. In casu de Dote alio modo est quod Tenens tepebit in pace, & Mulier habebit de terra warranti ad valentiam Dotis petite, dum tamen Tenens habeat de terra viri sui ad valenciam, unde hoc fieri possit, alias vero non.

De modo Dotis aliter assignande nichil ad presens.

Quia aliter usitatum est in Wallia quam in Anglia quoad successione[m] hereditatis, eo quod hereditas partibilis est inter heredes masculos, & a tempore cujus non extitit memoria partibilis extitit, Dominus Rex non vult quod consuetudo illa abrogetur, set quod hereditates remaneant partibiles inter consimiles heredes, sicut esse consueverunt, & fiat partitio hereditatis illius sicut fieri consuevit, hoc excepto, quod Bassardi non habeant de cetero hereditates, & etiam quod non habeant de cetero propartes cum legitimis nec sine legitimis.

Et si forte hereditas aliqua extunc pro defectu heredis masculi descendat ad legitimas Mulieres heredes ultimi Antecessoris sup inde seisti, volumus de gratia nostra speciali quod eadem Mulieres legitime habeant propartes suas inde sibi in Curia nostra assignandas licet hoc sit contra consuetudinem Wallensium antea usitam.

Et quia Wallenses Nobis supplicarunt, ut eis concedamus, quod de rebus suis immobilibus, veluti de terris & tenementis, inquiratur veritas per bonos & legales homines de vicinio de consensu partium electos; & de mobilibus, sicut de contractibus, debitis, fidejussionibus, conventionibus, transgressionibus, etatillis, & omnibus aliis hujusmodi mobilibus, uti possint Lege Wallensia, qua uti consueverunt, que talis erat, Quod si aliquis conqueretur de alio de contractibus vel factis in tali loco, quod posset intentio Querentis probari per videntes & audientes; cum Querens per hujusmodi testes, quorum testimonium reprobari non possit probaverit intentionem suam, recuperaret rem petitam, & condemnaretur pars adversa: Et in aliis que non possent probari per videntes & audientes, esset pars defendens ad purgationem suam, aliquando cum pluribus, aliquando cum paucioribus, secundum qualitatem & quantitatem rei vel facti; & in furto, si furtum inveniantur in manu, se purgare non posset, set pro convicto haberetur.

Nos pro communi pace & quiete predicti Populi nostri Terre nostre Wallie Premissa eis concedimus: Ita tamen quod ea in furtis, latrociniis, incendiis, murdris, homicidiis, & roberis manifestis & notoriis locum non habeant, nec ad ea aliquatenus se extendant: in quibus volumus quod utantur Legibus Anglie, prout superius est expressum.

Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod Premissa de cetero in omnibus firmiter observetis. Ita tamen quod quotienscunque & quando cunque & ubicunque Nobis placuerit, possimus predicta Statuta & eorum partes singulas declarare, interpretari, addere sive diminuerè, pro nostre libito voluntatis, & prout securitati nostre & Terre nostre predictæ viderimus expedire.

In cujus rei testimonium Presentibus Sigillum nostrum est appensum. Dat. apud Rothelanum die Dominica in medio Quadragesime, Anno Regni nostri Duodecimo.

CUM nuper Dominus Rex in quindena sancti Johannis Baptiste anno regni sui sexto convocatis Prelatis Comitibus Baronibus & consilio suo apud Glouc' quia multi de regno suo exheredationem patiebantur eo quod in multis casibus ubi remedium apponi debuit prius non fuit per predecessores suos aut ipsum remedium provisum quedam statuta populo suo valde necessaria & utilia edidit per que populus suus Anglicanus & Hibernicus sub suo regimine gubernatus celeriore justitiam quam prius in suis oppressionibus consecutus est ac quidam casus in quibus lex deficiebat remanserunt non determinati quedam enim ad reprimendum oppressionem populi remanserunt statuenda Dominus Rex in parlamento suo post Pascha anno regni sui tertio decimo apud Westm' multas oppressiones & legum defectus ad supplementationem predictorum statutorum apud Glouc' editorum recitari fecit & statuta edidit ut patebit in sequenti.

WHEREAS of late our Lord the King, in the Quinzim of Saint John Baptiste, ^{2 Inst. 337} the Sixth Year of his Reign, calling together the Prelates, Earls, Barons, and his Council at Gloucester, and considering that divers of this Realm were disherited, by Reason that in many Cases, where Remedy should have been had, there was none provided by him nor his Predecessors, or dained certain Statutes right necessary and profitable for his Realm, whereby the People of England and Ireland, being Subjects unto his Power, have obtained more speedy Justice in their Oppressions, than they had before; and certain Cases, wherein the Law failed, did remain undetermined, and some remained to be enacted, that were for the Reformation of the Oppressions of the People: Our Lord the King in his Parliament, after the Feast of Easter, holden the Thirteenth Year of his Reign at Westminster, caused many Oppressions of the People, and Defaults of the Laws, for the accomplishment of the said Statutes of Gloucester, to be rehearsed, and thereupon did provide certain Acts, as shall appear here following.

FIRST, Concerning Lands that many Times are given upon Condition, that is to wit, Where any giveth his Land to any Man and his Wife, and to the Heirs begotten of the Bodies of the same Man and his Wife, with such condition expressed, that if the same Man and his Wife die without Heirs of their Bodies between them begotten, the Land so given shall revert to the Giver or his Heir. (2) In case also where one giveth Lands in free Marriage, which Gift hath a Condition annexed, though it be not expressed in the deed of Gift, which is this, That if the Husband and Wife die without Heir of their Bodies begotten, the Land so given shall revert to the Giver or his Heir. (3) In case also where one giveth Land to another, and the Heirs of his Body issuing; it seemed very hard, and yet seemeth to the Givers and their Heirs, that their Will being expressed in the Gift, was not heretofore, nor yet is observed. (4) In all the Cases aforesaid, after Issue begotten and born between them (to whom the Lands were given under such Condition) heretofore such Feoffees had Power to aliene the Land so given, and to disherit their Issue of the Land, contrary to the Minds of the Givers, and contrary to the Form expressed in the Gift. (5) And further, When the Issue of such Feoffee is failing, the Land so given ought to return to the Giver or his Heir, by Form of the

IN primis de tenementis que multotiens dantur sub conditione videlicet cum aliquis dat terram suam alicui viro & ejus uxori & heredibus de ipsis viro & muliere procreatis adjecta conditione expressa tali quod si hujusmodi vir & mulier sine herede de ipsis viro & muliere procreator obissent terra sic data ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem revertatur. In casu etiam cum quis dat tenementum in liberum maritadium quod donum habet conditionem annexam licet non exprimat in carta doni que talis est quod si vir & mulier sine herede de ipsis procreato obierint tenementum sic datum ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem revertatur. In casu etiam cum quis dat tenementum alicui & heredibus de corpore suo exeuntibus durum videbatur & adhuc videtur hujusmodi donatoribus & heredibus donatorum quod voluntas ipsorum in donis suis expressa non fuerit prius nec adhuc est observata. In omnibus enim predictis casibus post prolem suscitatum & exeuntem ab ipsis quibus tenementum sic fuit datum conditionaliter hucusque habuerunt hujusmodi feofati potestatem alienandi tenementum sic datum & exheredandi de tenemento exitum ipsorum contra voluntatem donatorum & formam de dono expressam. Et preterea cum deficiente exitu de hujusmodi feofatis tenementum sic datum ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem reverti debuit per formam in carta de dono expressam licet licet exitus si quis fuerit obisset per factum & feoffamentum ipsorum quibus tenementum sic fuit datum sub conditione exclusi fuerunt hucusque de reversione eorundem tenementorum quod manifeste fuit contra formam doni sui.

Propter quod dominus Rex perpendens quod necessarium & utile est in predictis casibus apponere remedium statuit quod voluntas donatoris secundum formam in carta doni sui manifeste expressam de cetero observetur ita quod non habeant illi quibus tenementum sic fuit datum sub conditione potestatem alienandi tenementum sic datum quo minus ad exitum illorum quibus tenementum sic fuerit datum remaneat post eorum obitum vel ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem si exitus deficiat per hoc quod nullus sit exitus omnino vel si aliquis exitus fuerit per mortem deficiet herede hujusmodi exitus deficiente. Nec habeat de cetero secundus vir hujusmodi mulieris aliquid in tenemento sic dato per conditionem post mortem uxoris ejus per Legem Anglie nec exitus de secundo viro & muliere successionem hereditariam set statim post mortem viri & mulieris quibus tenementum sic fuit datum post eorum obitum vel ad eorum exitum vel ad donatorem vel ad ejus heredem ut predictum est revertatur.

Et quia in novo casu novum remedium est apponendum fiat impetranti tale breve :

the Gift expressed in the Deed, though the Issue (if any were) had died: (6) Yet by the Deed and Feoffment of them (to whom Land was so given upon Condition) the Donors have heretofore been barred of their Reversion, which was directly repugnant to the Form of the Gift.

II. Wherefore our Lord the King, perceiving how necessary and expedient it should be to provide Remedy in the aforesaid Cases, hath ordained, That the Will of the Giver, according to the Form in the Deed of Gift manifestly expressed, shall be from henceforth observed; so that they to whom the Land was given under such Condition, shall have no Power to aliene the Land so given, but that it shall remain unto the Issue of them to whom it was given after their Death, or shall revert unto the Giver, or his Heirs, if Issue fail (whereas there is no Issue at all) or if any Issue be, and fail by Death, or heir of the Body of such Issue failing. (2) Neither shall the second Husband of any such Woman from henceforth, have any Thing in the Land so given upon Condition, after the Death of his Wife, by the Law of England, nor the Issue of the second Husband and Wife shall succeed in the Inheritance, but immediately after the Death of the Husband and Wife (to whom the Land was so given) it shall come to their Issue, or return unto the Giver, or his Heir, as before is said.

A Recordare to remove a Plaint. Pledges to prosecute a Suit. Second Deliverance.

The Mischiefs which Lords distraining their Tenants did suffer. 2 Inst. 337— 342.

FORASMUCH as Lords of Fees distraining their Tenants for Services and Customs due unto them, are many times grieved, because their Tenants da replevy the Distress by Writ, or without Writ: (2) And when

QUIA domini feodorum distringentes tenentes suos pro serviciis sibi debitibus multotiens gravantur per hoc quod cum tenentes sui distractionem suam per breve vel sine brevi replegiaverint ac ipsi domini cum ad querimoniam tenentium suorum ad comitatum vel ad aliam curiam habentem potestatem placitandi placita de vetito natio per attachiamentum venerint & rationabilem & justam distinctionem advocaverint per hoc quod tenentes deadvocant nichil tenere nec clamant tenere de eo qui distinctionem fecit & advocavit remansit qui distrinxit in misericordia & tenentes sui quieti quibus pro illa deadvocatione per recordum comitatus five aliarum curiarum que recordum non habent pena infligi non potest.

De cetero provisum est & statutum quod cum hujusmodi domini in com' vel hujusmodi cur' justitiam de hujusmodi tenentibus suis consequi non possunt quam cito attachiati fuerint ad sectam tenentium suorum concedatur eis breve ad ponendum loquelam illam coram Justiciariis coram quibus & non alibi justitia hujusmodi domini exhiberi poterit Et inferatur causa in brevi quia talis distrinxit in feodo suo pro serviciis & consuetudinibus sibi debitis nec per istud statutum derogatur legi communi usitate que non permittit placitum aliquod poni coram Justic' ad petitionem defendentis. Quia licet prima facie videbatur tenens actor & dominus defendens habito tamen respectu ad hoc quod dominus distringit & sequitur pro serviciis & consuetudinibus sibi a retro existentibus realiter potius apparebit actor five querens quam defendens. Et ut in certo sint Justiciarii de qua recenti seilina poterunt domini advocare rationabilem distinctionem super tenentes suos de cetero concordatum the Lords, at the Complaint of their Tenants, do come by Attachment into the County, or unto another Court, having Power to hold Pleas of Withernam, and do avow the taking good and lawful, by reason that the Tenants disavow to hold ought, nor do claim to hold any thing of him which took the Distress and avowed it, be that distrained is amerced, and the Tenants go quit; (3) to whom Punishment cannot be assigned for such disavowing by Record of the County, or of other Courts having no Record.

II. It is provided and ordained from henceforth, That where such Lords cannot obtain Justice in Counties and such manner of Courts against their Tenants, as soon as they shall be attached at the Suit of their Tenants, a Writ shall be granted to them to remove the Plea before the Justices, afore whom, and none otherwhere, Justice may be ministered unto such Lords; and the Cause shall be put in the Writ, because such a Man distrained in his Fee for Services and Customs to him due. (3) Neither is this Act prejudicial to the Law commonly used, which did not permit that any Plea should be moved before Justices at the Suit of the Defendant. (4) For though it appear at the first Shew that the Tenant is Plaintiff, and the Lord Defendant, nevertheless, having respect to that, that the Lord hath distrained, and sueth for Services and Customs being behind, he appeareth indeed to be rather Actor, or Plaintiff, than Defendant. (4) And if he can verify that he hath or had Right in the Land demanded, the Woman shall gain nothing by her Writ; which Thing if he cannot shew, the Woman shall recover the Land in Demand; (5) this being observed, that if the Husband absent himself, and will not defend his Wife's Right, or against his Wife's Consent will render the Land, if the Wife do come before Judgement, ready to answer the Demandant, and to defend her Right, the Wife shall be admitted. Where the Wife shall be endowable of Lands recovered against her Husband. Where the Heir may avoid a Dower recovered. A Remedy for particular Tenants losing by Default.

IN casu quando vir impletatus de tenemento reddi tenementum positum suo adversario de plano post mortem viri Justiciarii adjudicant mulieri dotem suam si per breve queratur. Sed in casu quando vir amittit tenementum positum per defaultam si mulier post mortem viri sui petat dotem competentum est quod per aliquos Justiciarios adjudicata fuerit dos mulieri petenti non obstante defaulta quam vir suus fecit aliis Justiciariis in contraria opinione existentibus & contrarium judicantibus. Ut de cetero asputetur hujusmodi ambiguitas sic in certo ordinatum est quod in utroque casu audiat mulier que dotem petit. Et si excepiatur contra ipsam quod vir ipsum tenementum unde dos petita est amittit per judicium per quod dotem habere non debet Et si queratur per quod judicium & competentum fuerit quod per defaultam ad quod tenens necesse habet respondere tunc oportet tenentem ulterius respondere & ostendere quod ipse tenens jus habuit & habet in predicto tenemento secundam formam brevis quod prius super virum impetravit. IN case where the Husband, being impleaded for Land, giveth up the Land demanded unto his Adversary by Covin; after the Death of the Husband the Justices shall award the Wife her Dower, if it be demanded by Writ. (2) But in case where the Husband loseth the Land in demand by Default, if the Wife after the Death of her Husband, demandeth her Dower, it hath been proved, that some Justices have awarded unto the Woman her Dower notwithstanding the Default which her Husband made, other Justices being of the contrary Opinion, and judging otherwise. To the intent that from henceforth such Ambiguity shall be taken away, it is thus ordained in certain, That in both Cases the Woman demanding her Dower shall be heard. (3) And if it be alledged against her, that her Husband lost the Land, whereof the Dower is demanded by Judgement, whereby she ought not to have Dower, and then it be enquired by what Judgement, and it be found that it was by Default, whereunto the Tenant must answer; then it behoveth the Tenant to answer further, and to shew that he had Right, and hath in the foresaid Land,

(4) And if he can shew that the Husband of such Wife had no Right in the Lands, nor any other but he that holdeth them, the Tenant shall go quit, and the Wife shall recover nothing of her Dower; which Thing if he cannot shew, the Wife shall recover her Dower. (5) And so in these Cases, and in certain other following, that is to say, When the Wife being endowed loseth her Dower by Default, and Tenants in free Marriage, by the Law of England, or for Term of Life, or in Fee-tail; divers Actions do concur for such Tenants, when they must demand their Land, lost by Default: (6) And when it is come to that Point, that the Tenants must be compelled to shew their Right, they cannot make answer without them to whom the Reversion of Right belongeth; therefore it is granted unto them to vouch to Warranty, as if they were Tenants, if they have a Warranty. (7) And when the Warrantor hath warranted, the Plea shall pass between him that is seised and the Warrantor, according to the Tenor of the Writ that the Tenant purchas'd before, and by which he recovered by default; (8) and so from many Actions at length they shall resort to one Judgement, which is this, That the Demandants shall recover their Demand, or the Tenants shall go quit. (14) In like Manner the Woman shall be aided, if the Heir or any other do implead her for her Dower, or if she lose her Dower by Default, in which case the Default shall not be so prejudicial to her, but that she shall recover her Dower, if she have Right thereto, and she shall have this Writ:

(4) Wherefore our Lord the King hath ordained, That like as the Tenant should leese the Land being in Demand, in case where he vouched, and the Vouchee could discharge himself of the Warranty, in the same wise shall the Warrantor leese in case where he denieth his Warranty, and it be tried against him that he is bounden to Warranty. (21) And it is to be understanden, that by this Statute Tenants are not excluded, but they shall have a Warranty of the Means and their Heirs, if they be impleaded of their Lands, as they have had before; (22) nor the Tenants shall be excluded, but that they may sue against their Means, as they used heretofore, if they see that their Process may be more available by the old Custom, than by this Statute. (23) And it is to wit, that by this Statute no Remedy is provided to any Means, but only in case where there is but one only Mean between the Lord that distraineth and the Tenant; (24) and in case where that Mean is of full Age; (25) and in case where the Tenant may attorn unto the chief Lord without Prejudice of any other than of the Mean, which is spoken for Women Tenants in Dower, and Tenants by the Courtesie, or otherwise for Term of Life, or in Fee-tail, unto whom for certain Causes Remedy is not yet provided, but (God willing) there shall be at another Time.

(24) And if per case the Sheriff when he cometh do find Resistance, he shall certify to the Court the Names of the Resisters, Aiders, Consenters, Commanders, and Favourers, and by a Writ judicial they shall be attached by their Bodies to appear at the King's Court; (25) and if they be convicted of such Resistance, they shall be punished at the King's Pleasure: Neither shall any Officer of the King's meddle in assigning the Punishment, for our Lord the King hath reserved it specially to himself, because that Resisters have been reputed Disturbers of his Peace, and of his Realm.

THE King to his Judges sendeth Greeting. Use yourselves circumspectly in all Matters concerning the Bishop of Norwich and his Clergy, not punishing them if they hold Plea in Court Christian of such Things as be meer spiritual, that is to wit, of Penance enjoined by Prelates for deadly Sin, as Fornication, Adultery, and such like, for the which sometimes Corporal Penance, and sometime Pecuniary is enjoined, specially if a Freeman be convict of such Things. (2) Also if Prelates do punish for leaving the Church-yard unclosed, or for that the Church is uncovered, or not conveniently decked, in which Cases none other Penance can be enjoined but Pecuniary.

Circumspecte agatis de negotio tangente dominum Episcopum Norwicen' & clericum non puniendo eos si placita tenuerint de hiis que mere sunt spiritualia videlicet de correctionibus quos Prelati faciunt pro mortali peccato videlicet fornicatione adulterio & hujusmodi pro quibus aliquando infligitur pena corporalis aliquando pecuniaria maxime si convictis sit de hiis liber homo.

Item si Prelatus pro cimiterio non clauso ecclesia discooperata vel non decenter ornata in quibus casibus alia pena non potest infligi quam pecuniaria penam imponat.

Item si Rector petat decimam majorem vel minorem dummodo non petatur quarta pars alicujus ecclesie.

Item si Rector petat mortuarium in partibus ubi mortuari dari consueverit.

Item si Prelatus alicujus ecclesie petat pensionem a Rectore sibi debitam omnes hujus pensiones ones faciende sunt in foro ecclesiastico.

De violenta manuum injectione in clericum & in causa diffamationis concessum fuit alias quod placita inde teneantur in Cur' Christianitatis dummodo non petatur pecunia sed agatur ad correctionem peccati.

In omnibus istis casibus habet iudex ecclesiasticus cognoscere regia prohibitione non obstante licet porrigatur ob quod impetrant laici prohibitionem in genere super decima oblationibus mortuar' redemptionibus penitentiarum violenta manuum injectione in clericum & conversum & in causa diffamationis in quibus casibus agitur ad penam canonicam capiend'.

Respondit dominus Rex ad istos articulos quod in decimis obventionibus oblationibus mortuar' quando agitur ut predictum est prohibitioni non est locus. Et si clericus vel Religiosus decimas suas in horreo congregatas vel alibi existentes vendiderit pro pecunia alicui & implacitetur in Cur' Christianitatis locum habet regia prohibitio quia per venditiones res spirituales sunt temporales & sic transeunt decime in catallis.

Item si contentio sit de jure decimarum originem habens de jure Patronatus & earum decimarum quantitas excedat quartam partem ecclesie locum habet regia prohibitio.

Item si Prelatus imponat penam pecuniariam alicui pro peccato & petat illam pecuniam locum habet regia prohibitio si coram Prelatis pecunia exigatur.

Item si quis manus violentas injecerit in clericum pro pace domini Regis debent emende fieri coram Rege pro excommunicatione vero coram Episcopo & si imponatur pena corporalis quam si reus velit redimere dando prelo vel lesio pecuniam potest nec in talibus locus est prohibitioni.

In diffamationibus liberorum corrigant Prelati regia prohibitionem non obstante licet porrigatur.

so that the fourth Part of the Value of the Benefice be not demanded.

(6) Item, If a Prelate of a Church, or of a Patron, demand of a Parson a Pension due to him, all such Demands are to be made in a Spiritual Court. (7) And for laying violent Hands on a Clerk, (8) and in Cause of Defamation, it hath been granted already, that it shall be tried in a Spiritual Court, when Money is not demanded, but a Thing done for Punishment of Sin, and likewise for breaking an Oath. FOrasmuch as Fines levied in our Court ought and do make an End of all Matters, and therefore are called Fines principally, where after waging of Battail or the great Assise in their Cases ever they hold the last and final Place. (2) And now by a certain Time

Et volumus quod statutum istud tam locum habeat ad fines prius levatos quam imposterum levandos. Et videant Justiciarii quod note & fines in Curia imposterum levandi publice & solemniter legantur & quod placita interim cessent omnino & hoc fiat per duos dies in septimana secundum discretionem Justiciar'.

CAP. II.

A Sheriff shall levy no more Issues than he hath Warrant for. His Tallies.

ITEM ordinavimus de consilio nostro quod vicecomites de cetero non onerentur de aliquibus exitibus levandis nec aliquos levent antequam excant

Time passed, as well in the Time of King HENRY of famous Memory, our Grandfather, as in our Time, the Parties of such Fines and their Heirs, contrary to the Laws of our Realm of ancient Time used, were admitted to annul and defeat such Fine, alledging that before the Fine levied, and at the levying thereof, and since, the Demandants or Plaintiffs, or their Ancestors, were always seised of the Lands contained in the Fine, or of some Parcel thereof; and so Fines lawfully levied were many Times unjustly defeated and annulled by Jurors of the Country falsely and maliciously procured;

(3) we therefore, intending to provide a Remedy in the Premises, in our Parliament at Westminster have ordained, that such Exceptions, Answers, or Inquisitions of the Country, shall from henceforth in no wise be admitted contrary to such Recognifances or Fines. And further we will, That this Statute shall as well extend unto Fines heretofore levied, as to them that shall be levied hereafter. And let the Justices see that such Notes and Fines, as hereafter shall be levied in our Court, be read openly and solemnly, and that in the mean Time all Pleas shall cease; and this must be at two certain Days in the Week, according to the Discretion of the Justices.

No Exception to a Fine, that the Demandant was always seised. Rait. 349, &c. 3 Co. 88.

Fines shall be openly read, and then all Pleas shall cease.

shall levy any before they pass out of the Exchequer, there to be delivered by the Extreats of the Justices; (2) and that in the Extreats of Justices every Head shall be charged for Issues forfeited, like as of Amerciaments. (3) And if Peradventure any Sheriff will answer for the Issues of any Recognisor, Pledge or Mainpignor, by him undertaken and returned into our Court, which at the Time of the Return is not able to pay such Issues or Amerciaments, the Sheriff shall be charged, and shall answer therefore in our Exchequer. (4) And let the Sheriffs beware under Pain of great Forfeiture, that from henceforth they do make Tallies of all such Money as they or their Officers have received by our Commandment; (5) and that they do not return any where the Names of any Mainpignors, Jurors, or any other, except such Mainpignors, Jurors, or others, according to the Tenour of our Writs being directed to the Sheriffs for the same Cause, be lawfully and manifestly impanelled thereupon. (6) And they shall not return the Names of any Freemen as Pledges, without that they will plainly consent and agree to the same. (7) And hereupon we have enacted, That at one Time certain every Year, one Baron and one Clerk of our said Exchequer shall be sent through every Shire of England, to inroll the Names of all such as have paid that Year's Debts exacted on them by green Wax. The Statute of Wards and Relief, made Anno 28
EDW. I. Stat. 1. Anno Dom. 1300.

Who fhall be in Ward and pay Relief, and who not. How many Writs there be to recover Wards.

IT is to wit, that where any Relief is given, there Wardship is incident, and contrariwife. (2) And fuch as hold by Serjeanty, to go with the King in his Hof, there Ward and Relief are incident. (3) And fuch as hold by Petty Serjeanty as to bear Shield or Spear in the King's Hof, or to bear or to carry, there is neither Ward, Marriage, or Relief. (4) Also a free Sokeman fhall not give Ward, nor Relief, but he fhall double his Rent after the death of his Ancestor, according as he hath ufed to pay to his Lord, and fhall not be unmeafureably grieved. (5) Now fomewhat is to be faid of the Nature of having Wards. There be two manner of Writs to have Wards; one is, where Lands be holden in Knights-services; the other is, where Lands be holden in Socage. (6) The Ward of Land that is holden in Knights-service belongeth to the chief Lord, and the Marriage, which ought to be without Difparagement, as the great Charter limiteth, until he cometh to the Age of one and twenty Years. (7) The Ward of an Heir that holdeth in Socage, if the Land or Inheritance defcend of his Mother's Side, then it belongeth to the next Friend on the Father's Side, and contrariwife. (8) And a Writ to recover Ward may be brought in three Manners, One is, when a Man demandeth Ward of the Land and of the Heir, and that is in Cafe, when a Man holdeth Land of another, by Knights-service, and the Tenant dieth, then may the chief Lord (if he be deforced) demand the Ward of his Land and Heir, and fhall have both Ward and Marriage. (9) Another Manner is, when a Man is infeoffed of a Verge of Land by one Man, and by another of a Carve Land, the fecond Lord, may not bring a Writ of Ward to recover either the Land or the Heir, for the Ward belongeth to him, of whom he was firft infeoffed. (10) The third Manner is, where a Man hath Land in his Hands by Reason of a Ward, and hath not the Heir, then he may bring a Writ to demand the Heir, and not the Land. Altered by Stat. 12 Car. 2. cap. 24.

In what Cases and by whom Trees may be felled in Church-yards.

BEcause we do understand, that Controversies do oftentimes grow between Parsons of Churches and their Parishioners, touching Trees growing in the Church-yard, both of them pretending that they do belong unto themselves, (2) we have thought it good rather to decide this Controversy by Writing than by Statute. (3) Forasmuch as a Church-yard that is dedicated is the Soil of a Church, and whatsoever is planted belongeth to the Soil, it must needs follow, That those Trees which be growing in the Church-yard are to be reckoned amongst the Goods of the Church, the which Laymen have no Authority to dispose, but, as the Holy Scripture doth testify, The Charge of them is committed only to Priests to be disposed of.

QUoniam inter rectores ecclesiarum et suos parochianos super arboribus crescentibus in cemiterio altercationes oriri sepius intelleximus, utrisque ad se pertinere contententibus: Hujusmodi altercationis dubium declarare, juris sacri potius quam statuti juris estimamus. Nam cum cimiterium maxime dedicatum solum sit ecclesie, et quicquid plantatur solo cedat; sequitur necessario, arbores ipsas debere inter facultates ecclesiasticas numerari, de quibus laicis nulla est attributa facultas disponendi, sed sicut sacra scriptura testatur solis sacerdotibus dispositio et cura indiscussa a Deo commissa decet.

Verum cum arbores ipse propter ventorum impetus, ne ecclesiis noceant, sepe plantantur; prohibemus ne ecclesiarum rectores ipsas presumant prosterneat indistincte, nisi cum cancellus ecclesie necessaria indigeat refectione. Nec in alios usus aequaliter convertantur; preterquam si navis ecclesie indigerit similiter refectione, et rectores parochiarum indigentium eis caritative de arboribus ipsis duxerint largiendum: quod fieri non precipimus, sed cum factum fuerit commendabimus.

THE King to all to whom, &c. sendeth Greeting. Understand ye, That whereas of late Times of our Progenitors sometimes Kings of England, in divers their Parliaments, and likewise after that we had undertaken the Governance of the Realm, in our Parliaments many Articles containing divers Grievances (committed against the Church of England, the Prelates and Clergy) were propounded by the Prelates and Clerks of our Realm; and further, great Instance was made that convenient Remedy might be provided therein: (2) And of late in our Parliament holden at Lincoln, the ninth Year of our Reign, we caused the Articles underwritten, with certain Answers made to some of them heretofore, to be rehearsed before our Council, and made certain Answers to be corrected; and to the Residue of the Articles underwritten, Answers were made by Us and our Council; of which said Articles, with the Answers of the same, the Tenors here ensue.

REX omnibus ad quos &c. salutem. Sciatis quod cum dudum temporibus progenitorum nostrorum quondam Regum Anglie in diversis parliamentis suis et similiter postquam regni nostri gubernacula suscepimus in parliamentis nostris per prelatos & clerum regni nostri plures articuli continentes gravamina aliqua ecclesie Anglicane & ipsis prelati & clero illata ut in eisdem assererebatur porrecti fuissent & cum instantia supplicatum ut inde apponeretur remedium opportunum ac nuper in parlamento nostro apud Lincoln' anno regni nostri nono articulos subscriptos & quasdam responsiones ad aliquos eorum prius factas coram consilio nostro recitari ac quasdam responsiones corrigi & ceteris articulis subscriptis per nos & dictum consilium nostrum fecerimus responderi quorum quidem articulorum & responsionum tenores subsequuntur in hunc modum.

IN primis laici impetrant prohibitionem in genere super decimis obventionibus oblationibus mortuariis redemptionibus penitentiarum violenta manuum injectione in clericum vel conversum & in causis difamationis in quibus agitur ad penam canonicam imponendam Rex ad istum articulum respondet quod in decimis oblationibus obventionibus mortuariis quando super istis nominibus proponuntur prohibitioni regie non est locus etiam si propter detentionem istorum diuturnam ad estimationem earundem pecuniariam veniatur. The Statute of Essoins, made Anno 12 EDW. II, Stat. 2. and Anno Dom. 1318.

Several Cases wherein Essoins do not lie.

Demonstratur quot modis essonia sunt calumpniana & in quibus essonia jacent & in quibus non. Non jacet in terra capta est in manum domini Regis. Non jacet quando aliquis districtus est per ter-

HERE is declared how many Ways Essoins may be challenged, and in what Cases Essoins do lie, and in what not; that is to say, an Essoin lieth not where the Land is taken into the King's Hands.

In what Cases an Essoin doth lie, and in what not.

- (2) Effoin lieth not where the Party is distrained by his Land.
- (3) Effoin lieth not where any Judgement is given thereupon, if the Jurors do come. (4) Effoin lieth not where the Party was seen in the Court. (5) Effoin of Ultra mare lieth not where another Time the Party hath been effoined De malo veniendi. (6) It lieth not where the Party hath effoined himself another Day. (7) It lieth not where the Sheriff was commanded to make the Party to appear. (8) Effoin De servitio regis lieth not where the Party is a Woman, unless because she be Nurse, a Midwife, or commanded by Writ ad ventrem inspiciendum. (9) It lieth not in a Writ of Dower, because it seemeth to be but a Deceit and a Delay of Right. (10) It lieth not for that the Plaintiff hath not found Pledges to prosecute the Suit. (11) It lieth not where the Attorney was effoined. (12) It lieth not where the Party hath an Attorney in his Suit. (13) It lieth not where the Essoignor confesseth that he is not in our Lord the King's Service. (14) It lieth not where the Summons is not returned, or the Party not attached, for that the Sheriff hath returned non est inventus. (15) It lieth not where the Party another Time was effoined de servitio regis, that is to wit, such a Day, and now he hath not put in his Warrant. (16) It lieth not where he was summoned in Assise of Mortdauncestor, or Darrein Presentment. (17) It lieth not because such a one is not named in the Writ. (18) It lieth not where the Sheriff hath a Precept to Distrain the Party to come by his Lands and Goods. (19) It lieth not where the Bishop was commanded to cause the Party to appear. (20) It lieth not for that the Term is passed. (21) And it is to be noted, that an Effoin de servitio domini
- ras & catalla. Non jacet quia concessum est hinc inde judicium*. Nec jacet de ultra mare quia alias se effoniavit de malo veniendi. Nec jacet quia se effoniavit tali die. Nec jacet quia preceptum fuit vicecomiti quod faceret ipsum venire. Non jacet de servitio domini Regis pro femina nisi quia nutrix aut obstetrix aut mittatur per breve adventrem inspiciendum. Non jacet quia querens non invenit plegios de prosequendo. Non jacet quia effoniatus testatur quod non est in servitio domini Regis. Non jacet quia nulla summonitio testificata vel attachiata est vel quia vicecomes mandavit quod non est inventus. Non jacet quia alias se effoniavit de servitio domini Regis scilicet tali die & modo & non misit Warrantum suum. Non jacet quia mandatum fuit Episcopo quod faceret eum venire. Non jacet quia non nominatur in brevi. Non jacet quia resummonitio fuit de ultima presentatione vel morte antecessoris. Non jacet quia preceptum est vicecomiti quod attachiet eum. Non jacet quia nondum dies preterit.
- Et sciendum quod effonium de servitio domini Regis scilicet post magnum cape & post parvum cape & post districtionem per terras & catalla jacet.

 eux forsque en la presence & le oie les dites Sire Hugh & Sire

 Roi de leur bone volente vers leur Seigneur lige & acrochant a eux roial poer Meistrrie & sovereignte sur la persone le Roi au grant deshonour & peril du Roi & de la Corone & de son roialme.

Auxint mesmes ceux pur atteindre a leur malveistes & covestiez a desheritaunce des graundz de la terre & destruction du poeple ousterent bones & convenables Ministres qi furent mys per assent & mistrent autres faux & malveis de leur covine qi ne soeffrent droit estre fait & Viscuntes Eschetours Conestables veis mesnerent a desheritaunce des graundz & destruction du poeple.

 gneur le Roi daler a Chivalx & as armes vers les parties de Gloucestre & lui firent chivaucher & ses gentz armez en celles parties a coure sur ses bones gentz countre la fourme de la graunt chartre & les garder des Piers de la terre & issint per leur faux struction de seinte eglise e du poeple pur leur querele propre.

Auxint la ou le Counte de Hereford e le Seigneur de Wygemore per comaundement du Roi assignez daler de guerre sur Thlewelyn Bren qui fust leve encoutre le Roi en Glamorgan tant come les terres furent en la main le Roi per la mort le Counte de Gloucestr' le dit Thlewelyn se rendi a les ditz Seignurs a la volonte le Roi en sa grace & ceux Seignurs lui promistrent bone grace & sur tiel condition le recouvert & lui liverent a nostre Seigneur le Roi. Et nostre Seigneur le Roi en tiele forme lui receust & puis tanqe come les ditz Seignurs furent hors de la terre les ditz Sire Hugh le fitz & Sire Hugh le pierre qavoient accroche roial poer sicome desuis est dit pristerent le dit Thlewelyn & lui mesnerent a Kaerdif puis qe Sire Hugh le fitz fust seisi illoqes de sa propartie & per leur coveigne empernant jurisdiction la ou null en ceo cas ne poent per reson avoir & lui firent illoqes treynier pendre decoller & quartrover felonessment pur chose faite en temps le Roi & ensi purpernant roial poer & jurisdiction qappendoit a la Corone en disheritaunce de la Corone & a deshonour de nostre Seigneur le Roi & des dites Seignurs de Hereford & de Mortimer & en malveis ensaumple & grant peril per cas en temps avenir. Et auxint mal conseilant nostre Seigneur le Roi de prendre en sa main les terres & les chateux Sire Hugh Daudele le fitz & le forjurgerent des ses terres faunz due proces selonc leie de la terre per covetise davoit accroche au dit Sire Hugh le Despenser le fitz celes terres & per autres faux compassementz al entier del Counte de Gloucestre en desheritaunce des piers de la terre.

Et auxint les Escluz as Evesques Abbes Priories qui deivent estre droit resceux de nostre Seigneur la Roi la ou ils sont en due fourme escluz ne poent approcher a nostre Seigneur Roi ne ove lui parler de quere sa grace tanque ils avoient fait fine & tret Sire Hugh le filz a sa volente.

Ne nul que eust graunte a quere de nostre Seigneur le Roi ne poet a nul graunt atteindre avant quil avoit fait fine a lui. Estre ceo la ou John de Latchelegh & autres furent agardez a la prisonne pur un trespas qils avoient fait a la Dame de Merk a damage de la dite Dame de Merk C. Marz dount furent atteintz devant Monf. Les queux malveistes susescritz sont notoires et verrois sicome treuve est per examenement des Countes Barouns & autres Piers de la terre.

Par quoi noz Pieres de la terre Countes et Barouns en la presence nostre Seigneur le Roi agardons que Sire Hugh de Despenfer le fitz & Sire Hugh le pere soient desheritez a touz jours come desheritours de la Corone & enemys du Roi & de son poeple & qils soient del tout exilez hors du roialme Dengleterre sanz retourner en nul temps si ceo ne soit de lassent nostre Seigneur le Roi & de lassent des Prelates Countes et Barouns & ce en parlement duement somois. Statutum De Terris Templariorum, made Anno 17
EDW. II. Stat. 3. and Anno Dom. 1324.

FOR that the military Order of Templers ceasing and being dissolved, the Lands and Tenements, in Demeasnes, Fees, and services of the Brethren of the same Order which they held in their Fraternity in the Realm of England in the Time of the same ceasing and Dissolution of the foresaid Order, which were holden of our Lord the King, and divers other Lords in this Kingdom, were seised into the Hands of our Sovereigne Lord the King, and of divers other Lords of the Fees of them, who challenged the same Lands for the Consideration aforesaid, that the same Lands ought to revert to them as their Escheats. Whereupon after in a Parliament of the most noble Prince King EDWARD Son of King EDWARD, summoned and assembled at Westminster, three Weeks after the Day of the Purification of the blessed Virgin Mary, in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of the same King, great Conference was had before the King himself, in the Presence of the Prelates, Earls, Barons, Nobles, and great Men of the Realm, and others there present, whether the foresaid Lords of the Fees or others which held those Lands that were the foresaid Templers, as is aforesaid, might retain them by the Law of the Realm, and with safe Conscience. Whereupon the greater Part of the King's Council, as well the Justices as other lay Persons being assembled together: The said Justices affirmed precisely, that our Lord the King, and other Lords of the Fees aforesaid, might well and lawfully by the Laws of the Realm retain the foresaid Lands as their Escheats, in regard of the ceasing and Dissolution of the Order aforesaid.

Whether the Order of Templers being dissolved, the Lords of the Fees might enjoy their Lands.

But because the Lands and Tenements aforesaid were given to the Brethren of the said Order for the Defence of Christians, and the Holy Land against Pagans and Saracens, and other Enemies of Christ and Christians, and the universal holy Church: It seemed good to our Lord the King, the Noblemen, and others assembled in the same Parliament, for the Health of their Souls and discharge of their Consciences, That whereas the said Military Order of Templars were originally instituted for the Defence of Christians and the universal holy Church, subversion of the Enemies of Christ and Christians, and canonised to the Augmentation of the Honour of God, and liberal Almsgiving, that the foresaid Lands and Tenements in Demeasnes, Lordships, Services, Liberties, Customs, and all other Things pertaining thereunto, and by any Thing depending hereupon, according to the Wills of the Givers, shall be assigned and delivered to other Men of most holy Religion, to the Intent the Fruits, Obventions, and Profits of the same Lands, Tenements, and other Things may be converted and charitably disposed to godly Uses. And thereupon in the same Parliament it is agreed, ordained and established for Law to continue for ever, That neither our Lord the King, nor any other Lords of the Fees aforesaid, or any other Person, hath Title or Right to retain the foresaid Lands and Tenements with the Appurtenances or any Part thereof, in regard of Eicheat, or by any other Means, or hereafter to challenge the same Lands in respect of the ceasing or Dissolution of the foresaid Military Order of Templers, whereof the Brethren of the same Order were seised in their Demesnes as of Fee at the Time of the ceasing and Dissolution aforesaid: Notwithstanding that the foresaid Lands and Tenements after the said ceasing and Dissolution came to the Hands of divers Persons by Descent of Inheritance, Gift, or Purchase, or by any other Means: And notwithstanding any Law or Custom of the Realm of England, whereby this Law, Ordinance and Statute, touching the Assignment and Conveyance of the foresaid Lands and Tenements might be hindered, impugned, or counterpleaded.

All the Tem-
plers Lands given to the Prior of the Hospital of St.
John of Hieru-
salem.
21 Co. 21. b.

Seeing the Order of the Brethren of the Hospital of Saint John of Hierusalem was likewise ordained, instituted, and canonised for the Defence of Christians and the holy Church: It is agreed and enacted in the said Parliament by our foresaid L. the King, the Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other great Men of the Realm there being, That insomuch as the foresaid Order of the Templers is ceased and dissolved, and the foresaid Order of the Hospital is provided, instituted, and canonised, for the Defence of Christians, as is aforesaid, that all the Lands, Tenements, Lordships, Fees, Churches, Advowsons of Churches, and Liberties with all Things to them belonging, which were the said Templers at the Time of their ceasing and Dissolution, shall be assigned and delivered to the foresaid Order of the Hospital, and to the Prior and Brethren of the same Hospital, to remain to them and their Successors for ever. Wherefore our said L. the King, by the mutual Assent of the Earls, Barons, and Noblemen aforesaid, of his Regall Authority in the same Parliament, hath assigned to determine and deliver all the foresaid Lands, Tenements, Lordships, Fees, Churches, Advowsons, and Liberties with their Appurtenances to the foresaid Order of the Hospital, and to the said Prior and Brethren of the said Order, to have and hold to the same Prior and his Brethren and Successors for ever of our L. the King, and other Lords of the Fees aforesaid, by the same Services, by which the Brethren of the Military Order of Templers held the same, at the Time of their ceasing and Dissolution: as in relieving of the Poor, in Hospitalities, in celebrating Divine Service, Defence of the Holy Land, and in all other Offices and Services before Time due, by whatsoever Names they be called. So always, that the godly and worthy will of the foresaid Givers be observed, performed, and alwaies religiously executed, as is aforesaid, saving to every Person his Action, if he had any, the Time of the ceasing and Dissolution aforesaid against the same Templers in the foresaid Lands and Tenements, Rents, Services, Customs, Pensions, Corodies, Liberties, celebrating of Masses, Almes, and other Things whatsoever, and Liberty to prosecute his Right against the said Prior and Brethren of the Hospital aforesaid and their Brethren and their Successors, according to the Law and Custom of the Realm, as he might have had against the foresaid Templers, if the Order aforesaid had not been dissolved: And if it fortune that the said Prior and Brethren of the Hospital aforesaid, or their Successors shall be put out of the foresaid Lands and Tenements, or of any Parcell thereof, after they shall be seised of the same, they shall have Power to recover their own according to the Law of the Realm.

And to the Intent that the Assignment before specified may be published and made known to all Men to whom it behoveth: it is ordained and agreed in the same Parliament, that it shall be openly proclaimed in every County of this Kingdome, that all and every Person holding the Lands and Tenements aforesaid, and all others to whom it doth appertaine, shall be at Westminster one Month after Easter Day next if they will, to hear the Concord, Provision, and Assignment aforesaid, in Form aforesaid.

Consuetudines et Affisa de Foresta sive Articuli de Attachiametis Forestae. †

SI quis forestarius, juratus cuilibet facere attachiamenta, invenit aliquem attachiabilem pro viridi in foresta; primo debet ipsum attachiare per duos plegios, si inventus fuerit in loco suspecto; sin autem, debet ducere ipsum ad proximam Villam, et ibi ponere ipsum per vadium et plegium; Et si idem alias inveniatur cum viridi, debet ipsum attachiare per quatuor plegios: Et si tertio inveniatur cum viridi; coram viridario debet presentari, et poni per octo plegios: Et postea post tertium attachiamentum, corpus suum debet attachiari et retineri.

Ut memorialiter habeatur quid sit viride; sciend' est, quod omnes arbores fructum portantes, et etiam he que tenent viriditatem per totum annum, et fraxinus si antiquitus usum fuerit intra forestam, et arabilis qua dominus Rex est in seifina,

Si

Si quis forestarius invenerit extra dominicum boscum et intra rewardum aliquem prosternentem quercum, sine visu aut liberatione forestarii aut viridarii; debet ipsum attachiare per quatuor plegios; et per visum viridarii debet quercus illa appreciari, et in rotulo forestariorum et viridariorum et regardatorum imbrevari, et debet poni per sex plegios salvos; et si alias inveniatur debent duplicari ejus plegii; Et si tertio, corpus ejus debet retineri. Et si aliquis attachiabilis fuerit contra vadum et plegium, debet distringi per catalla sua infra metas foreste ubi erunt inventa; si autem defecerint, licitum est corpus suum retinere, quousque fecerit id quod facere debuerit. Si autem infra metas foreste non fuerit; Nomen ejus debet irrotulari, et villa de qua fuerit &c.

Liberatio housbote & haybote debet fieri, prout boscus o test pati in statu quo est, & non secundum exigentiam ejus cui fit liberatio. Non potest aliquis dare nec vendere de bosco domini Regis sine Warranto ejusdem Regis.

Si aliqua fera inveniatur mortua vel vulnerata, et non fuerit bercatorum; Ad prima placita debet fieri inquisitio per quatuor villas propinquiores, que debet irrotulari; et inventor debet poni per sex plegios; caro autem debet mitti ad proximam domum leproforum, si que prope fuerit in partibus illis, et hoc per testimonium viridariorum et patrie. Si autem nulla talis domus fuerit prope, caro debet dari infirmis et pauperibus; caput et cutis debent dari liberis hominibus proxime ville; et sagitta, si que inventa fuerit, debet presentari viridariis, et in veredicto suo irrotulabitur.

Si Leporarius inventus fuerit currens ad aliquod nocumentum foreste; capitalis forestarius debet eum retinere in presentia viridariorum, et mittere eum domino Regi vel capitali Justiciario foreste.

Si quis mastivus inventus fuerit currens super aliquam feram, & dictus mastivus mutulatus fuerit; ille cujus mastivus ille fuerit erit de facto illo quietus: Set si non fuerit mutulatus, ille cujus erit Mastivus erit culpabilis tanquam de manupasto suo, et debet poni per sex plegios, quorum nomina debent imbrevari, et etiam qualis fuerit canis.

Si quis ceperit aliquam feram in foresta sine Warranto; corpus suum retinendum est, ubicumque inveniatur infra metas foreste; et quum captus fuerit, non liceat Forestariis ipsum delibere sine speciali precepto domini Regis vel Justiciariorum suorum.

Si quis videat aliquos malefactores infra metas foreste aliquam feram capere vel asportare; debet illos capere secundum posse suum: Et si non potest, debet levare hu & cry; et si non fecerit, remaneat in misericordia domini Regis.

Si quis Wodwardus videt aliquos malefactores in bosco, qui fuerit in custodia sua, vel feram bestiam invenerit mortuam; debet monstrare capitali forestario vel viridario si autem non fecerit, et forestarius domini Regis tale delictum in dicto bosco, qui fuerit infra rewardum, invenerit; ille boscus capiendus est in manum num domini Regis per preceptum Justiciariorum, et Wodewardus attachiandus est per quatuor plegios.

Si aliquis habuerit boscum juxta dominicum boscum nostrum; licitum est ei, postquam dominice hie agistate sunt, habere in bosco suo tempore pannagii tot porcos quot dominicus boscus per visum forestariorum viridariorum agistatorum et aliorum proborum hominum possit pati: Et si plures ibi fuerint; licitum est eis, capere panagium de omnibus residuis, qui plures fuerint, quam dictus boscus possit pati. Et fiat hoc in exitu porcorum, &c.

Sciendum quod tempore pannagii, cum agistamentum debet fieri, debent forestarii et viridarii regardatores et agistatores per communem assensum intimare Justiciariis de foresta Domini Regis, et inquirere voluntatem suam, ut fiat agistamentum, tam in dominicis hais, quam in forinsecis boscis; et secundum mandatum suum et tenorem literarum debet fieri agistamentum, quas literas debent habere coram Justiciariis foreste proxime post itinerantibus. Et preceptum est, ut deinceps capitatur de quolibet porco quantum potest pro pannagio ad opus Domini Regis, scilicet unus vel duo denarii. De porcellis autem fiat sicut prius solitum est. Ex alio MS.

Si quis in alio comitatu miserit averia sua intra metas foreste; forestarius pro posse suo dicta averia debet retinere; et ea ponere per vadios et salvos plegios; quod si non possit, per testimonium viridariorum debet vicecomiti illius comitatus intimare, ut ipse distractionem faciat, quousque plegios invenerit; quod si vicecomes non fecerit, forestarius Justiciariis foreste debet hoc intimare.

Nullus messor debet adducere secum mastivum magnum de nocte, ad fugandum Regis feras; sed licitum est adducere parvos catulos expeditatos, ad expectandum extra coopertum.

De his qui clamant habere libertates; sicut canes inexpeditatos, et leporarios, intra metas foreste; nihil eis inde faciendum est sine warranto Domini Regis vel Justiciarorum suorum.

Si quis boscus remaneat in manu Domini Regis per unum annum et diem; in voluntate Domini Regis est, nisi possit recuperari per judicium Justiciariorum.

Omnnes mete foreste integre sunt Domino Regi.

Sciendum quod bene licitum est Abbati de Burgo Sancti Petri, venari, et capere leporem et vulpem et murelegum infra metas foreste, et habere canes non expeditatos; quia sufficiens habet inde warrantum.

Sciendum quod Dominus Petrus de Monteforti nullum habet warrantum, quin possit fieri attachiamentum in bosco suo.

Sciendum quod Justiciariis precipitur, quod si quis hominum Episcopi Lyncoln' intret in boscum suum forinsecum extra parcum, corpus suum retinendum est; et ille boscus remaneat in manu Domini Regis pro defectu forestar'.

Quando viridarii ceperint inquisitionem, unus apponat sigillum, et alius rotulum teneat; et sic de foresta in forestam usque adventum Justiciariorum: tunc primo die ipse et omnes ministri presentabunt rotulum, aut amercentur. Et manucapti pro foresta eo die proferantur, aut manucaptio incurratur.

Homo attachiatus pro ramis celis, placitum illud pertinet ad Swainmotum

secund par. 31.

Swainmotum coram fenescallo; et attachiatus pro quercu prostrata in dominica Regis vel alterius, pertinet coram Justiciariis. Et si noctanter alicubi fecerit, jacet imprisonmentum.

Attachiatus ad Swainmotum pro viridi non presentato ad proximum, ad aliud presentatio non prejudicet; sed capiatur ad forestarium pro concelamento, et eat attachiatus quietus per assisam.

Si forestarius in dominico bosco Regis consentiat delicto; capiat Rex suo superiori, et sibi si sufficiens sit.

Bosco vastatus ad quodlibet iter Justiciariorum dabit Domino Regi dimidiam marcam.

NOVA STATUTA.

Ex Edit.
Raffal.

Anno primo EDWARDI III.

Statutes made at Westminster, the Seventh of March, in the First Year of the Reign of the Noble King EDWARD the Third, Stat. 1. in the Year of our Lord 1327.

Confirmation of the Banishment of Hugh Spencer the Father, and Hugh Spencer the Son.

WHEREAS Hugh Spenser the Father, and Hugh Spenser Exile, the Son, late at the Suit of Thomas then Earl of Lancaster and Leicester, and Steward of England, by the Common assent and ward of the Peers and Commons of the Realm, and by the assent of King Edward father to our Soueraign Lord the King that now is, Traitors and enemies of the King and of his Realm, were exiled, Disberited, and banished out of the Realm for euer, And afterward, he same Hugh and Hugh by euil counsel which the King had taken of them without the assent of the Peers and Commons of the Realm, came again into the Realm. And they with other procured the said King to pursue the said Earl of Lancaster, and other great men and people of this Realm, in which pursuit, the said Earl of Lancaster, and other great men and people of the Realm were willingly dead and Disberited, and some Outlawed, Banished, and Disberited, and some Disberited and imprisoned, and some ransomed and Disberited. And after such mischief, the said Hugh and Hugh, Master Robert Ballow, and Edmond late Earl of Arundel vsurped to them the Royal power, so that the King nothing did nor would do, but as the said Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond Earl of Arundel did counsel him, were it neuer so great wrong, during which vsurpation, by Duress and force against the will of the commons, they purchased lands as well by Fines leuied in the Court of the said King Edward, as otherwise. And whereas after the death of the said Earl of Lancaster, and of other great men, our Soueraign Lord the King that now is, and same Isabel, Queen of England, his mother, by the Kings will and Common Counsel of the Realm, went ouer into France, to treat a peace between the two Realms of England and France, vpon certain debates then moued: The said Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond Earl of Arundel continuing their mischief, encouraged the said King Edward against our Soueraign Lord the King that now is, his son, and the said Queen his wife, and by the Royal power which they had to them incroached, as afore is said, procured so much grievance by the assent of the said King Edward, to our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, and the Queen his mother, then being beyond the sea; that they remained as forsaken of the said King Edward, and as exiled from this Realm of England. Wherefore it was necessary for our Sovereign Lord the King that now is, and the Queen his mother, being in so great jeopardy of themselves in a strange Countrey, and seeing the destruction, damage, oppressions, and Disberisons which were notoriously done in the Realm of England, upon holy Church, Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other great men and the Comminalty, by the said Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond Earl of Arundel by the entraining of such royal power to them, to take as good counsel therein as they might. And seeing they might not remedie the same, unless they came into England with an army of men of war, And by the grace of God with such puissance and with the help of great men and Commons of the Realm, they have vanquished and destroyed the said Hugh and Hugh, Robert, and Edmond. Wherefore our Sovereign Lord King Edward that now is, at his Parliament holden at Westminster, at the time of his Coronation on the morrow after Candlemas, in the first year of his Reign, upon certain petitions and requests made to him in the said Parliament, upon such articles above rehearsed, by the common counsel of the Prelates, Earls, Barons, and other great men, and by the Comminalty of the Realm there being by his commandment, hath provided ordained and established in the form following.

CAP. I.

None shall be impeached which took Part with the King against his Father.

Pursuits.

FIRST, That no great Man nor other, of what Estate, Dignity, or Condition he be, that came with the said King that now is, and with the Queen his Mother, into the Realm of England, nor none other, then dwelling in England that came with the said King that now is, and the Queen, in Aid of them to pursue their said Enemies, in which Pursuit the King his Father was taken and put in Ward, and yet remaineth in Ward: shall not be impeached, molested, nor grieved in Person nor in Goods, in the King's Court, nor other Court for the Pursuit of the said King, taking and with-holding of his Body, nor Pursuit of any other, nor taking of their Persons, Goods, nor Death of any Man, or any other Things perpetrate or committed in the said Pursuit, from the Day that the said King and Queen did arrive, till the Day of the Coronation of the same King. And it is not the King's Mind, that such Offenders that committed any Trespas, or other Offence out of the said Pursuit should go quit or have Advantage of this Statute, but they shall be at their Answer for the same at the Law.

CAP. II.

The Repeal of the Exile made void.

Exiles.

ITEM, That the Repeal of the said Exile, which was made by Durefs and Force be annulled for evermore. And the same Exile made by Award of the Peers and the Commons by the King's Assent as afore is said, shall stand in his Strength in all Points, after the Tenour of every Article therein contained.

CAP. III.

The Executors of those that were wrongfully slain shall have Action to recover their Testators Goods. (2) All Assurances made to the Rebels by Durefs shall be void.

ITEM, That the Executors of the Testament of all those that were of the same Quarrel dead, shall have Actions and recover the Goods and Chattels of them being of the said Quarrel whose Executors they be, as they of the same Quarrel should. And that Fines, Sales, and Gifts of Land, and Recognisances of Debts after the Time of the Exile of the said Hugh and Hugh, made by Force and Durefs to the said Hugh and Hugh, Edmond Earl of Arundel, Robert Baldocke, and Walter Stableton, late Bishop of Exeter, or to any of them be defeated. It is also agreed and stablished, That if any Man will by way of Action, defeat any Fine, Sale or Gift of Land, and Recognisances of Debts, made by Force or Durefs to the said Persons as above is said: Force and Durefs. he shall have a Writ out of the Chancery to cause the Transcript of the Force and of the Fine, and the Tenour of the Recognisances to be had before the King and his Justices, assigned to hold Pleas before the King, with two Bishops, two Earls, and two Barons associate unto them, or else of every Estate one, to warn the Tenant of the Land, whereof such Fine is levied or Gift or Sale made. And if it be found in the King's Court by Confession of the Party, or by a lawful Enquest to be taken, that such Fine, Sale, or Gift, was levied or made by Durefs of Imprisonment, or else for Fear of Death: it shall then be defeated. And Execution to be made for the Plaintiff as pertaineth by Restitution of Lands and Tenements, being in other Mens Hands than the King's. And like Procefs shall be made of Lands being in the King's Hands, whereof Fines be levied to warn the Keepers of the said Lands. And in case where any will demand Land by the Common Law, and such Fine or Deed be pleaded in Barr of his Demand, then it shall be done as hath been used in Times past where a Release or quit Claim hath been pleaded in Barr of such Actions between the Parties, or Imprisonment hath been alledged. But it is not the Mind of the King nor of his Counsel, that they which have sold their Lands, and released or quit claimed of their own free Will, should have any Benefit by this Statute.

CAP. IV.

That upon grievances which the Purveyors of the King's, Queen's, and their children's Houses did to the People, in outrageous measure of Corn, and also in willfull taking of Hay, litter, &c. provided by the same Purveyors, it be established, that the said Purveyors and takers of Corn for the said House of the King and Queen shall take the same by Measure striked, according as is used throughout the Realm. And that all the Corn, Hay, and Litter, and Bestail, and all other victail and things whatsoever they be, to be taken for the same Houses, shall be praised at the true Value by the Constables and other good People of the Towns, where such takings shall be made, without that, that

And whereas in the same Statute an Article was rehearsed, which was made in the Time of King EDW. of good memory, Grandfather to the King that now is, where certain Pains be contained against those, which do unduly make Purveyances for such Houses, for which pains the Purveyors of the said Houses have not let to make outrageous and undue taking, against the Tenor of the said Statute: To the Honour and Profit of our said Lord the King, and for the Quietness and Tranquility of his People, and to refrain, and also to punish the Misdemeanor of them that have made such outrages, in Slander of the King, the Queen his companion, and their Children: It is accorded and established, that the takings and Purveyances shall be made for the said Houses, by Appraisment made by the Constables, and four discreet Men of the Towns, where such takings and Purveyances shall be made, sworn, and without Menace, as in the said Statute is contained. And against God and Right, and the said Establishments, the Escheators, and other to whom the Lands of such Heirs have been committed, have done Waste and Destruction, to the great Mischief, as well of the Heirs of Earls, Barons, and other great Men, as of other which hold of the King in chief, and nevertheless the said Escheators have had no Conscience to do such Destructions, and scarcely have answered the King: Wherefore it is assented and established, That from henceforth after the Death of every Person which holdeth of the King in chief, that the Escheators shall cause to be seized into the King's Hands the Lands as do appertain, without doing Waste in Houses, Woods, Parks, Ponds, or other Extortions, which may fall to the Damage of the Heir. And it is not the King's Intent, that by this Statute he be foreclosed to have an Action of Waste against such Guardians and Fermors, as he and his Ancestors have had before this Time. EDWARD by the Grace of God, &c. greeting. Know ye, That whereas in the first Article of the Great Charter it is contained, that the Church of England be free, and have all her Rights entirely, and Franchises not blemished; (2) and also in all the whole Establishments made as well in Times of our Progenitors, as in our own Time, the same Article is often ratified and confirmed: (3) Nevertheless in our Parliament holden at Westminster the Wednesday next after the Sunday of middle Lent, it is shewed unto us by the Reverend Father in God, John Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of England, and the other Prelates and Clergy of our Realm, how some Oppressions and Grievances be done in divers Manners by some of our Servants to People of holy Church, against the Franchises of the Great Charter and the Establishments aforesaid, which Oppressions they shew in Petition, praying upon the same Remedy. (4) Wherefore we, their Petition seen and regarded, and thereupon Deliberation had with the Peers of our Realm, and other of our Council and of the Realm, summoned to our said Parliament, and having regard to the Great Charter, and to other Statutes aforesaid, and at the Request of the said Prelates and Clergy, which have much aided us, and daily do, by the Assent and Accord of the said Peers, and of all other summoned and being in our said Parliament, have granted and do grant for us and our Heirs and Successors, to the said Prelates and Clergy, of other Lands, Tenements, Fees, and Advowsons being in our Hands and in the Hands of our Ancestors, by Nonage of Heirs, it hath been used before this Time, the Exception of Plenarty should hold no Place against us, nor against any of our Ance-tors, no more in case where such Presentments should be devolute to us in another's Right, than if they had been in our own Right, or in the Right of our Crown, whereby many Parsons and Prebendaries were put out of their Churches, Prebends, and Benefices, which they had long Time holden, to their great Mischief and Impoverishment: We will and grant for us and for our Heirs, to avoid such Mischiefs, that from
